Some of us were raised on Ole Miss, learning "Hotty Toddy" before we could say the alphabet. Some of us stumbled upon Oxford, Mississippi while checking out colleges as a high school senior. For those who unknowingly happened upon Ole Miss, the realization that they've made a great discovery makes them smug to their other hometown buddies who have chosen inferior, lesser schools. They don't know what we know; if they knew, they'd be here.

As freshmen enrollment continues to escalate and as Chancellor Turner's "Legacy of Achievement with a Vision for Tomorrow" gains more recognition, more people will discover the reasons why Ole Miss is so special.

Well, what is it about this place that creates such affinity? What is it that makes alums crazy with pride and generous with checkbooks? Why do we consider it the greatest school on earth? Why is this place so special?

It is a number of things. The natural beauty of the campus and in the faces of people. It is also the atmosphere. A place of learning with an emphasis on the student and their abilities to achieve. We are encouraged by the administration to promote ourselves and in turn, the university. In our college community we grow and learn of ourselves by working with others. We experience.

CHANGE

We were talking the other day in the offices about how much Ole Miss had changed since our parents' age. Steve said when his dad was here, there were only about 200 cars on campus. "Yeah, and they shaved the heads of freshman guys as soon as they arrived on campus. The Cardinal Club set up a road block. You even had to pay them two bucks to do it." Then you had to buy a beanie at Carl Coers for $1.25 and it was required that you wear it all year. Some traditions have thankfully gone by the wayside.

Did you know that the Parade of Beauties was once called the Parade of Virgins? Rosanne asked what the word "lyceum" meant, anyway. None of us knew so we looked it up. Lyceum: 1) an organization providing popular instruction by lectures, concerts, etc., also, its building. 2) a lycee. 3) a grove near Athens where Aristotle taught. Seems appropriate.

When we were kids, going back to school on that cool first day, there was a special smell of halls cleaned with Pine-Sol, clean notebooks and stiff books. But not for us anymore. We go back to school in the sweltering heat and unbearable humidity. Our freshman year it took the entire family, the wagon loaded and seven hours to move in. Now it takes us about 30 minutes. We've got this system down pat.

You've been away all summer and you've got to have a Walmart fix. There is nothing so thrilling as to walk into that treasure trove of retail. Everything is so cheap and so useful that you've got to have it. You spend $60 easy. No wonder Mr. Walton is the richest guy in America.

We come to school tan and smiling and rushing those freshmen. Talking, "Do you know . . ." Then serious talk but always smiling. In Lisa Birnbach's college book she cites Ole Miss as a happy place and "who needs a happy hour in happy town." It's true, it's a friendly place. Ole Miss, where everyone speaks, (and has a faculty parking sticker).

ROUTINES

Poppy was complaining about all the "stuff" she had to do. "Just look at my calendar. Go to Oxford Floral, buy happy for Susan; go to cleaners; tanning appointment at six o'clock; work at library from one to three o'clock; Racquetball at seven o'clock; get hypnotized at Union at three thirty; we were all going to Pete's today and I have too much 'stuff' to do."

Routines. They say they give order and a bit of security to our lives. Some can be enjoyable, others a chore. Some you can not get away from, like registration. The Opscan system cuts down on a lot of time, we don't know how lucky we are to have it. Payment of fees, depends on the time of day you hit the Turner complex. For some people, those holds at the Bursar and library can be a run around. Something strange happened to me this past semester — I paid my fees in twenty minutes.

We learned to PRIORITIZE. There are seminars and books teaching you to get your act together and get organized, but learning about it is only a form of procrastination. We all have calendars. We try to do everything and still leave time to take off for Sardis. How many times have you sworn to yourself that this semester would be different. You would study a little bit every day (no more all-nighters), work out at the Turner complex every day, stop eating and drinking so much, and be in bed by a decent hour? Maybe once very four months? It is so easy to be bad and so hard to be good.

... drive around, please.

Students coming back to Ole Miss in the fall found that one of their most favorite eating establishments — Rebel Deli, had closed over the summer. But there were plenty of other places to assuage the appetite. We had our choice of at least seven pizza places. McDonald's, had Mceverything, Sonic was good for tater tots and cherry limeaid, Dino's was good for gyros, and lasagna, the Gin, burgers, Forrester's for home-cooked lunch, the Warehouse and the gargantuan salad bar, Syd & Harry's nouvelle cuisine, B-Quick and Chevron for fried chicken and potato logs, Frogurt for those trying to diet, Smitty's, Kroger Deli, Hoka, KFC, original or extra crispy. Mistilis' for burgers smothered in cheese and onions and Sadie's, the newest establishment where you could even get rumaki. Ruth & Jimmie's was more than worth the drive for a real home-cooked, lots of vegetables meal. And let's not forget the Big Boy's gift to Oxford — the Shoney's breakfast bar where you could eat your weight in scrambled eggs, big biscuits and gravy, pancakes, grits, french toast, hash browns, bacon and sausage. The place to be on Sunday.

If there was a group of people going out to eat and they couldn't decide where to go, when in doubt, go to Wendy's.

PARTY SCHOOL?

We have been condemned as a "Party School." Then you make the usual comeback: "Any school's a party school if you make it that way." Thursday nights are big. Some people who go home often go out on Thursdays. Then all the other people figure they better get out on Thursday nights too, to see and be seen.

We were talking about how big the Warehouse and the Gin used to be. Priscilla thought happy hour was making a comeback. We decided some bar needed to install a deck. What's going to happen when this 21 thing takes over someone asked. More fraternity parties? "I'll bet some freshman entrepreneur starts mass producing fake-IDs," Bob said.

Ole Miss is small enough so that you know or have heard of, most everyone. To walk in a bar and not know anyone is an impossibility. To walk around campus and not see anyone you know is an even greater impossibility.

THE CAMPAIGN AS AN ART FORM

In this seriously democratic school, the campus-wide elections are looked forward to events in the fall and spring. Probably, everyone has participated in some way whether it be singing in a song group or holding a sign. Granted you meet the requirements of running for office, here are some general rules for running a campaign.

- 1) Choose a well-respected, campus personality who's had campaign experience to be a campaign manager. More than one campaign manager is desirable.
- 2) Establish a contact at each sorority and fraternity house as an "In-house rep." They will speak for you in chapter meetings and get other people to help with the campaign.
- 3) Start eating lunches and dinners at different houses, cafeterias, and athletic dorm to meet more people.
- 4) Choose a co-ordinated person to think up the dance for the song group.
- 5) Choosing a song: it must be memorable and not hard to sing.
- 6) Choosing a song group: girls must be cute and popular; guys must also be popular and unafraid to be hams.
- 7) Campaign literature must be eye-catching and a very flattering picture of you. 1,000 flyers is a safe number to order. They must go on every last bulletin board on campus. Assign a literature-replenishing committee to check that the flyers are always still on boards.
- 8) Talk to the ROTC groups, pharmacy classes, large organizational meetings and any other place where a lot of people are congregated.
- 9) Dress for class.
- 10) Go out more often than usual.
- 11) Strategic days for ad placement in the Mississippian — first and last day of the campaign, and the Thursday and Friday of the campaign.
- 13) Fine your sponsoring organization if they are not always wearing the nametag that sports your name and picture.
- 14) Rallies — in dorms are a good way to meet independents. If you know any other influential campus leaders, this would be a good opportunity for them to speak for you. It's not what you know, it's who you know.
- 15) Remember, not everyone is as into this campaign as you are. Some people couldn't care less. Only a little over 10% of the population votes. But it's their school too, and you have to inspire them to get out and vote. Campaigns, one of the things that makes Ole Miss unique.

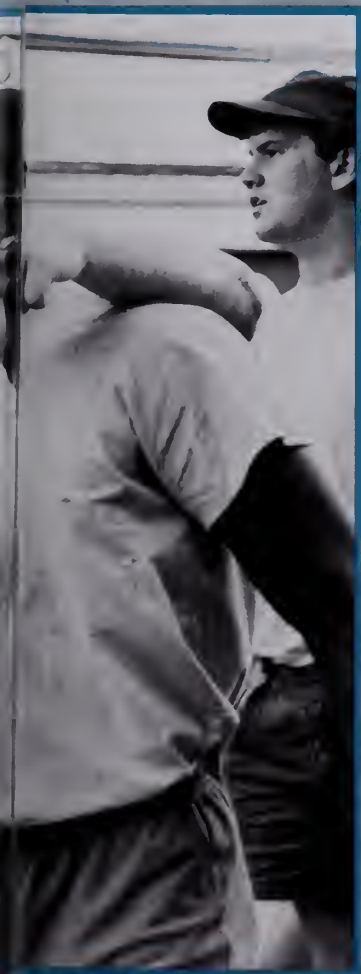

DIFFERENT BUT THE SAME

In a school this large, you're going to have distinctive groups of people that band together. You have your ASB politico. We have this image of the politico-making contacts, getting on committees, plotting, planning for a way to advance himself in the ASB framework. Well what is wrong with having some ambition? These people like to be in the middle of things. They have ideas and the abilities to put these ideas into a workable form.

Then there are those who thrive on greek life. The social butterflies and party animals. They jump from one theme weekend to the next.

There are intellectuals racking up honors and awards. There are dizzy debs and strong silent jocks. There are the artsy types that you can always pick out in a crowd. The over achievers who have their act so completely together. They do well in school and are intensely involved on campus. They've got so much going on, you wonder when if ever, do they sleep, and here, in the middle of it, there's one other group — the rest of us.

WE'RE INVOLVED

Recruit is a buzz word around here. It has been said that if you can get a student to visit Ole Miss on a prime weekend (i.e. football game, Derby Day) they'll be sold on Ole Miss.

Involvement is another key word. Do you know anyone, I mean even one person, who does not have at least one extra curricular activity to brighten their resume? This is not a school where a student goes to class from 8:00 to 12:00 then shrinks back home to be a couch potato and watch the soaps all day. Not every day anyway.

Maybe for once, your parents were right. These are the best days of our lives. Cherish them, because it will never be this easy again.

HOTTY TODDY

HOTTY TODDY, GOSH
AMIGHTY WHO IN THE
HELL ARE WE! HEY—
FLIM FLAM BIM BAM
OLE MISS BY DAMN!

Our nickname, Ole Miss, became a part of the University more than 80 years ago, in 1896 when it was selected in a contest held to identify a new student publication, the yearbook. It was suggested by the late Elma Meek of Oxford. Each succeeding issue of the annual has been given this copyrighted identity. The name gradually became synonymous with the University.

Jane Ruffin

ALMA MATER

'Way down south in Mississippi
There's a spot that ever calls,
Where among the hills enfold
Stands old Alma Mater's halls.
To the whispering southern breeze,
There Ole Miss is calling, calling
To our hearts' fond memories,

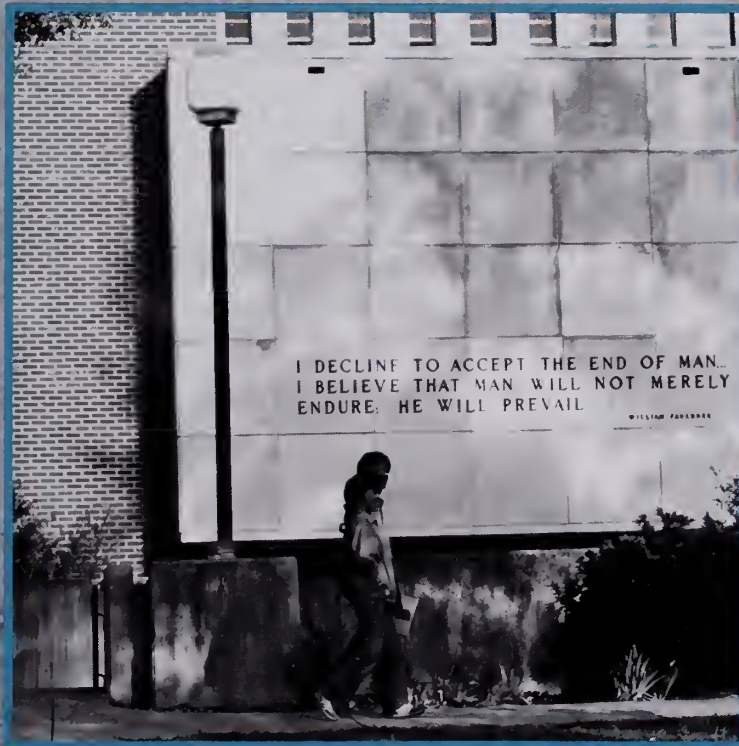

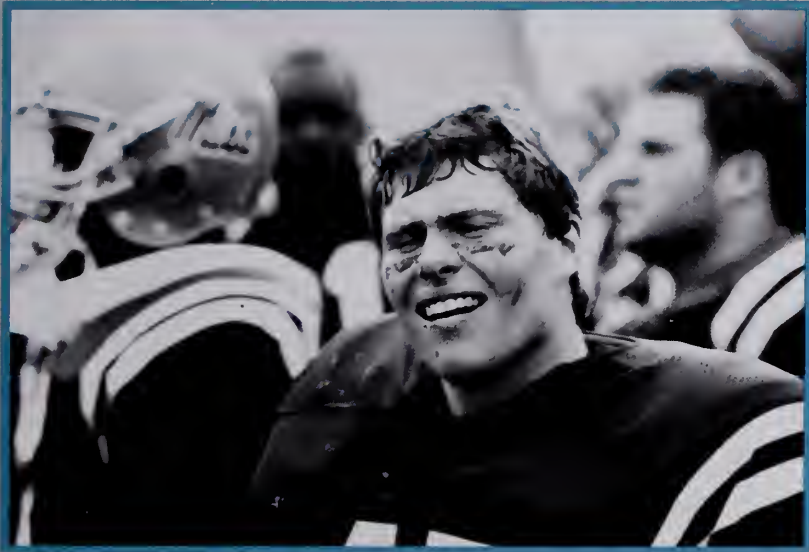

Have you ever slipped up over the holidays and told your mother you left something "at home," meaning Ole Miss. Her eyes narrow and she says "What do you mean at home? This is your home!" Then you have to quieten her and try to explain what you meant.

This is our home for an important, formative time in our lives. Sort of like a family, we don't always agree and we don't always stand together. But when it's important, like when we're called upon to raise spirit for our team or raise money for a cause, our groups and differences fade away and one thing shines clear and important: We're Ole Miss. We're surrounded by uplifting phrases that pinpoint certain emotions. On the library is an optimistic phrase by William Faulkner, "I decline to accept the end of man. I believe he not only will survive, but will prevail." There is another short phrase that comes closest to how we all feel about our University. It is in the stairwell of the Student Union and was written by Frank Everett, "The University is respected, but Ole Miss is loved. The University gives a diploma and regretfully terminates tenure, but one never graduates from Ole Miss."

Ole Miss. I'm thankful to have been able to experience it.

Sun Smash

People attending the first annual Sunsmash festival in defiance of occasional rain Friday were treated to a variety of different foods and styles of music.

Tuba Fats and the Chosen Few, a traditional New Orleans street jazz band, opened the festival to a crowd of about 250 people in the Grove, while vendors set up concession stands selling barbecue sandwiches, oriental shish kabobs, boiled shrimp and crawfish, pork ribs and catfish. James Wilson, food service director of Mary Holmes Junior College, flame-broiled pork ribs while prospective customers watched.

Susan Stanford stopped eating her plateful of boiled shrimp to say the festival was great. "I wish people would give it a chance. I think Lisa Gustin and the Programming Board did a good job," said Stanford, a junior liberal arts major from Ripley.

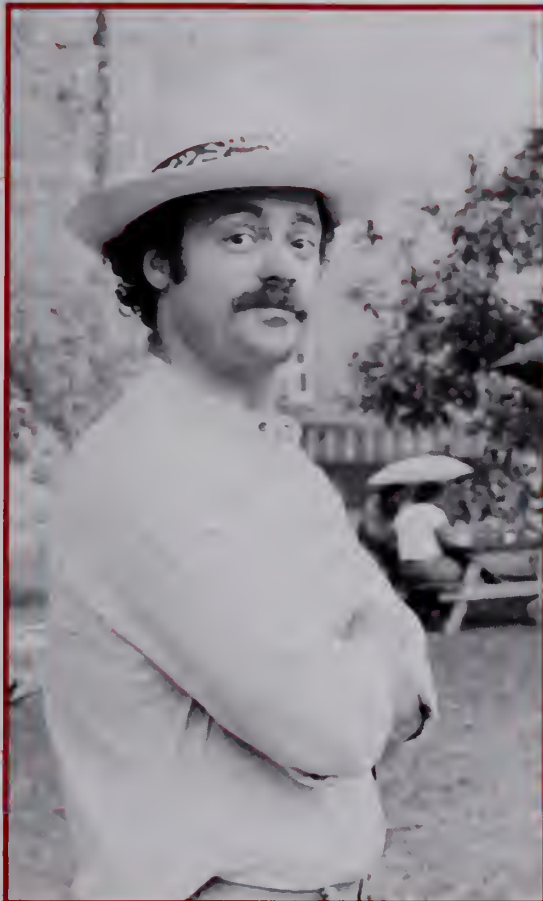

At 12 a.m. Saturday the rhythm and blues and Nappy Brown and Heartfixers entertained about 300 people on the Union steps to close Sunsmash and Dixie Week.

"But it would have been nice if they could have planned the grand finale for Saturday, maybe the weather would have been better," Wallace said. The senior from Georgetown said her favorite band was the reggae group, the Twinkle Brothers. "The only bad thing about them was they wouldn't come back for an encore," Wallace said.

Ron Shapiro, owner of the Hoka theatre, said he enjoyed all the bands. "It's perfect. The best thing in the world is the music," Shapiro said. Shapiro said the bad weather did not bother him. "The rain gets rid of the wimps."

Chorus conquers NEW YORK — EUROPE NEXT

The highly acclaimed University of Mississippi Concert Singers were selected to perform in the All-American Choral Gala at Lincoln Center in New York last May. It was a first of its kind concert in Lincoln Center and featured outstanding and renowned choral programs in the U.S. with the American Symphony Orchestra, according to Peter Tiboris, assistant conductor and chorus master of the American Symphony.

"The concert was an important musical event in this country because it served to highlight the appearance of seven great and distinguished choral programs together with the American Symphony Orchestra," Tiboris said. The Ole Miss group joined choruses from Arkansas, Colorado, Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota in the performance which included Anton Dvorak's "The Spectre's Bride."

With adventures in the Big Apple behind them, the Ole Miss Concert Singers have Europe to look forward to in May. Ole Miss was chosen by audition tape to participate in an International Choir Festival in Tours, France. They are the only choir from the United States that was chosen to compete. There will be choirs from every western country and eastern block country. While in Europe the choir will also visit Munich, Venice, and Paris, where the final concert will be in Notre Dame.

Royal Gambit

Royal Gambit is presented by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc., 45 West 25th St., New York, NY 10010.

Director's Note:

Hermann Gressieker envisions his Henry VIII as one type of modern man and attempts, in his play, to develop aspects of the modern age through his personalized viewpoint of Henry's relationships with his wives. As the play progresses, Gressieker shows us a Henry who is more and more aware of Today.

This is not to say that Henry marches grandly through the intervening centuries and into ours as a participant. Rather, he and his wives are aware of the future and aware, too, of the further developments and logical conclusions of what Henry began.

The audience can either accept the gift of foresight that the playwright gives Henry or they can push it aside. What remains, in either case, is a play about a brilliant, sad, arrogant and touching man and six magnificent women.

MISS AMERICA

Ole Miss co-ed Susan Akin was crowned Miss America 1986 on September 14, 1985. Akin, a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, won the Miss University title in the spring and went on to win the Miss Mississippi title in Vicksburg.

A senior broadcast journalism major, she is the third Miss America to have come from Ole Miss. She will receive a $30,000 scholarship and $2,500 in scholarships for winning one of the swimsuit preliminaries. Akin sang "You're My World," an Italian love song, for the talent competition.

Susan was very involved while at Ole Miss. She was a Rebelette, Most Beautiful 1984, and Sigma Chi Derby Day Queen of 1984. She was also a Campus Favorite, Kappa Sigma Little Sister, M-Club Sweetheart and a former Pike Calendar Cover girl.

A jubilant Susan Akin is crowned by Miss America 1985, Sharlene Wells.

COLONEL REB RICKY FAVA

In a student body election held in November, Ricky Fava was voted Colonel Reb. A Business major from Jackson, Ricky cheered the Rebels on for three years. He also pursued other interests at Ole Miss such as College Republicans, Committee of 100, Gamma Beta Phi and Order of Omega. His friendly personality made this Pike a natural choice for Colonel Reb.

MISS OLE MISS JUDY SPEAR

Judy Spear is no stranger to campus involvement. In her four years at Ole Miss, this Delta Delta Delta from Corinth was a varsity cheerleader, serving as head cheerleader her senior year, a member of Lambda Sigma, Omicron Delta Kappa, Student Alumni Council and assistant pledge trainer. A Business major, she was also chosen as a Campus Favorite and voted into the Hall of Fame.

KATHRYN MERRELL

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Crowned during the half-time of the Vanderbilt Homecoming game, Kathryn Merrell was a proud Rebel. "I've been a Rebel Recruiter for four years and am a big football fan so this is very exciting for me," she said. Merrell, a Kappa Alpha Theta from Jackson, was also a Top Ten Beauty for 1995. Her campus activities include Phi Lambda and Fraternity 4 club. Being president of her sorority also keeps her pretty busy. As a junior, Merrell was the Sweetheart of Sigma Nu and was chosen as a member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities as a senior.

MOST BEAUTIFUL MARY STEVENS

If only we could harness the enthusiasm of Mary Stevens, then our energy problems would be solved. This is perhaps what most captivated the judges with her, that and her dark beauty. A sophomore from Birmingham, Mary is a Broadcast Journalism major. A natural outlet for her buoyant personality is cheerleading and Mary has been a varsity cheerleader for one year. Her beauty was noticed early on when she was chosen as a freshman for the Pike calendar. She is a Sigma Alpha Epsilon little sister and a member of Delta Delta Delta. She was sponsored by Phi Delta Theta.

BEAUTY

KIM CHANDLER

Kim is no stranger to beauty pageants. Last year, she was chosen as a Top Ten beauty in the 1984 Parade of Beauties. She also graced the cover of the 1986 Pike calendar. A Kappa Delta from Jackson, Kim is a member of the Modeling Board, Committee of 100, Reformed University Fellowship, and a Pi Kappa Alpha little sister. She is a sophomore majoring in Marketing.

BEAUTY

ANGIE DICKEN

A transfer from Hinds Junior College, Angie Dicken is another pageant veteran. At Hinds, Angie was a Top Ten Beauty for two years and Miss Congeniality 1985. She is also Miss Metro Center for 1985. At Ole Miss, Angie was the vice-president of the pledge class of Kappa Kappa Gamma, a Kappa Sigma little sister, a member of College Republicans and a Bat Girl for the Ole Miss Baseball team. She is a junior pharmacy major.

AMY LEWIS

A Kappa Delta from Tullahoma, Tennessee, Amy Lewis is a sophomore English major. She is also a member of the University Honors Program and a member of Lambda Sigma. Other activities that keep her busy are Rebelettes and being a Sigma Chi little sister.

BEAUTY

CYNTHIA GEARY

Cynthia Geary, a junior voice major from Jackson, is smart as well as beautiful. She is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Alpha Lambda Delta, Gamma Beta Phi and Phi Eta Sigma. She is also the recipient of a Chancellor's Scholarship. Her activities include, concert singers, Modeling Board, Student Alumni Council, and Reformed University Fellowship. A Tri-Delta and a Pike little sis, Cynthia hopes to pursue a career in the entertainment field after graduation.

MELISSA MASON

We are certainly glad Melissa transferred from Hinds Junior College last year. Her beauty and friendly nature enhance our campus. She is a junior broadcast journalism major and is involved in Rebel Recruiters, Public Relations Student Society of America, Phi Kappa Psi little sisters, Ambassadors, Modeling Board and the Ole Miss Wesley Foundation.

A portrait of Nicole Meeks, a young woman with dark, wavy hair, wearing a gold sequined top, smiling against a light blue background.

BEAUTY

NICOLE MEEKS

A senior music education major from Corinth, Nicole is the eldest of our Beauties this year. In her four years at Ole Miss, she has left her mark on our campus by participating in such organizations as Associated Women Students, Committee of 100, and Gamma Beta Phi. She was also treasurer of her sorority, Delta Delta Delta, a Pike Calendar girl and a member of the Chancellor's Honor Roll.

BEAUTY

ELIZABETH ROSS

Sponsored by Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Elizabeth Ross is a junior majoring in Fashion Merchandising with a minor in business. Paralleling her major, Elizabeth is a member of the UM Modeling Board. She is a Tri-Delta and an SAE little sister.

BEAUTY

KATHY STALEY

A sophomore from Brandon, Kathy Staley is a journalism major with a broadcast minor. She is a member of Angel Flight, a former Rebelette, on the ASB Publication Committee and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

BEAUTY

LORI WILLIAMS

While only a freshman, Lori has already been very active on campus. She is a Rebelette and a member of Tau Beta Sigma. She was also a freshman Homecoming maid and is in the Chancellor's Leadership class for outstanding freshmen. Lori is from Starkville and is majoring in Business.

HONORS

SECTION EDITOR:
ROSANNE TURNER

HALL OF FAME

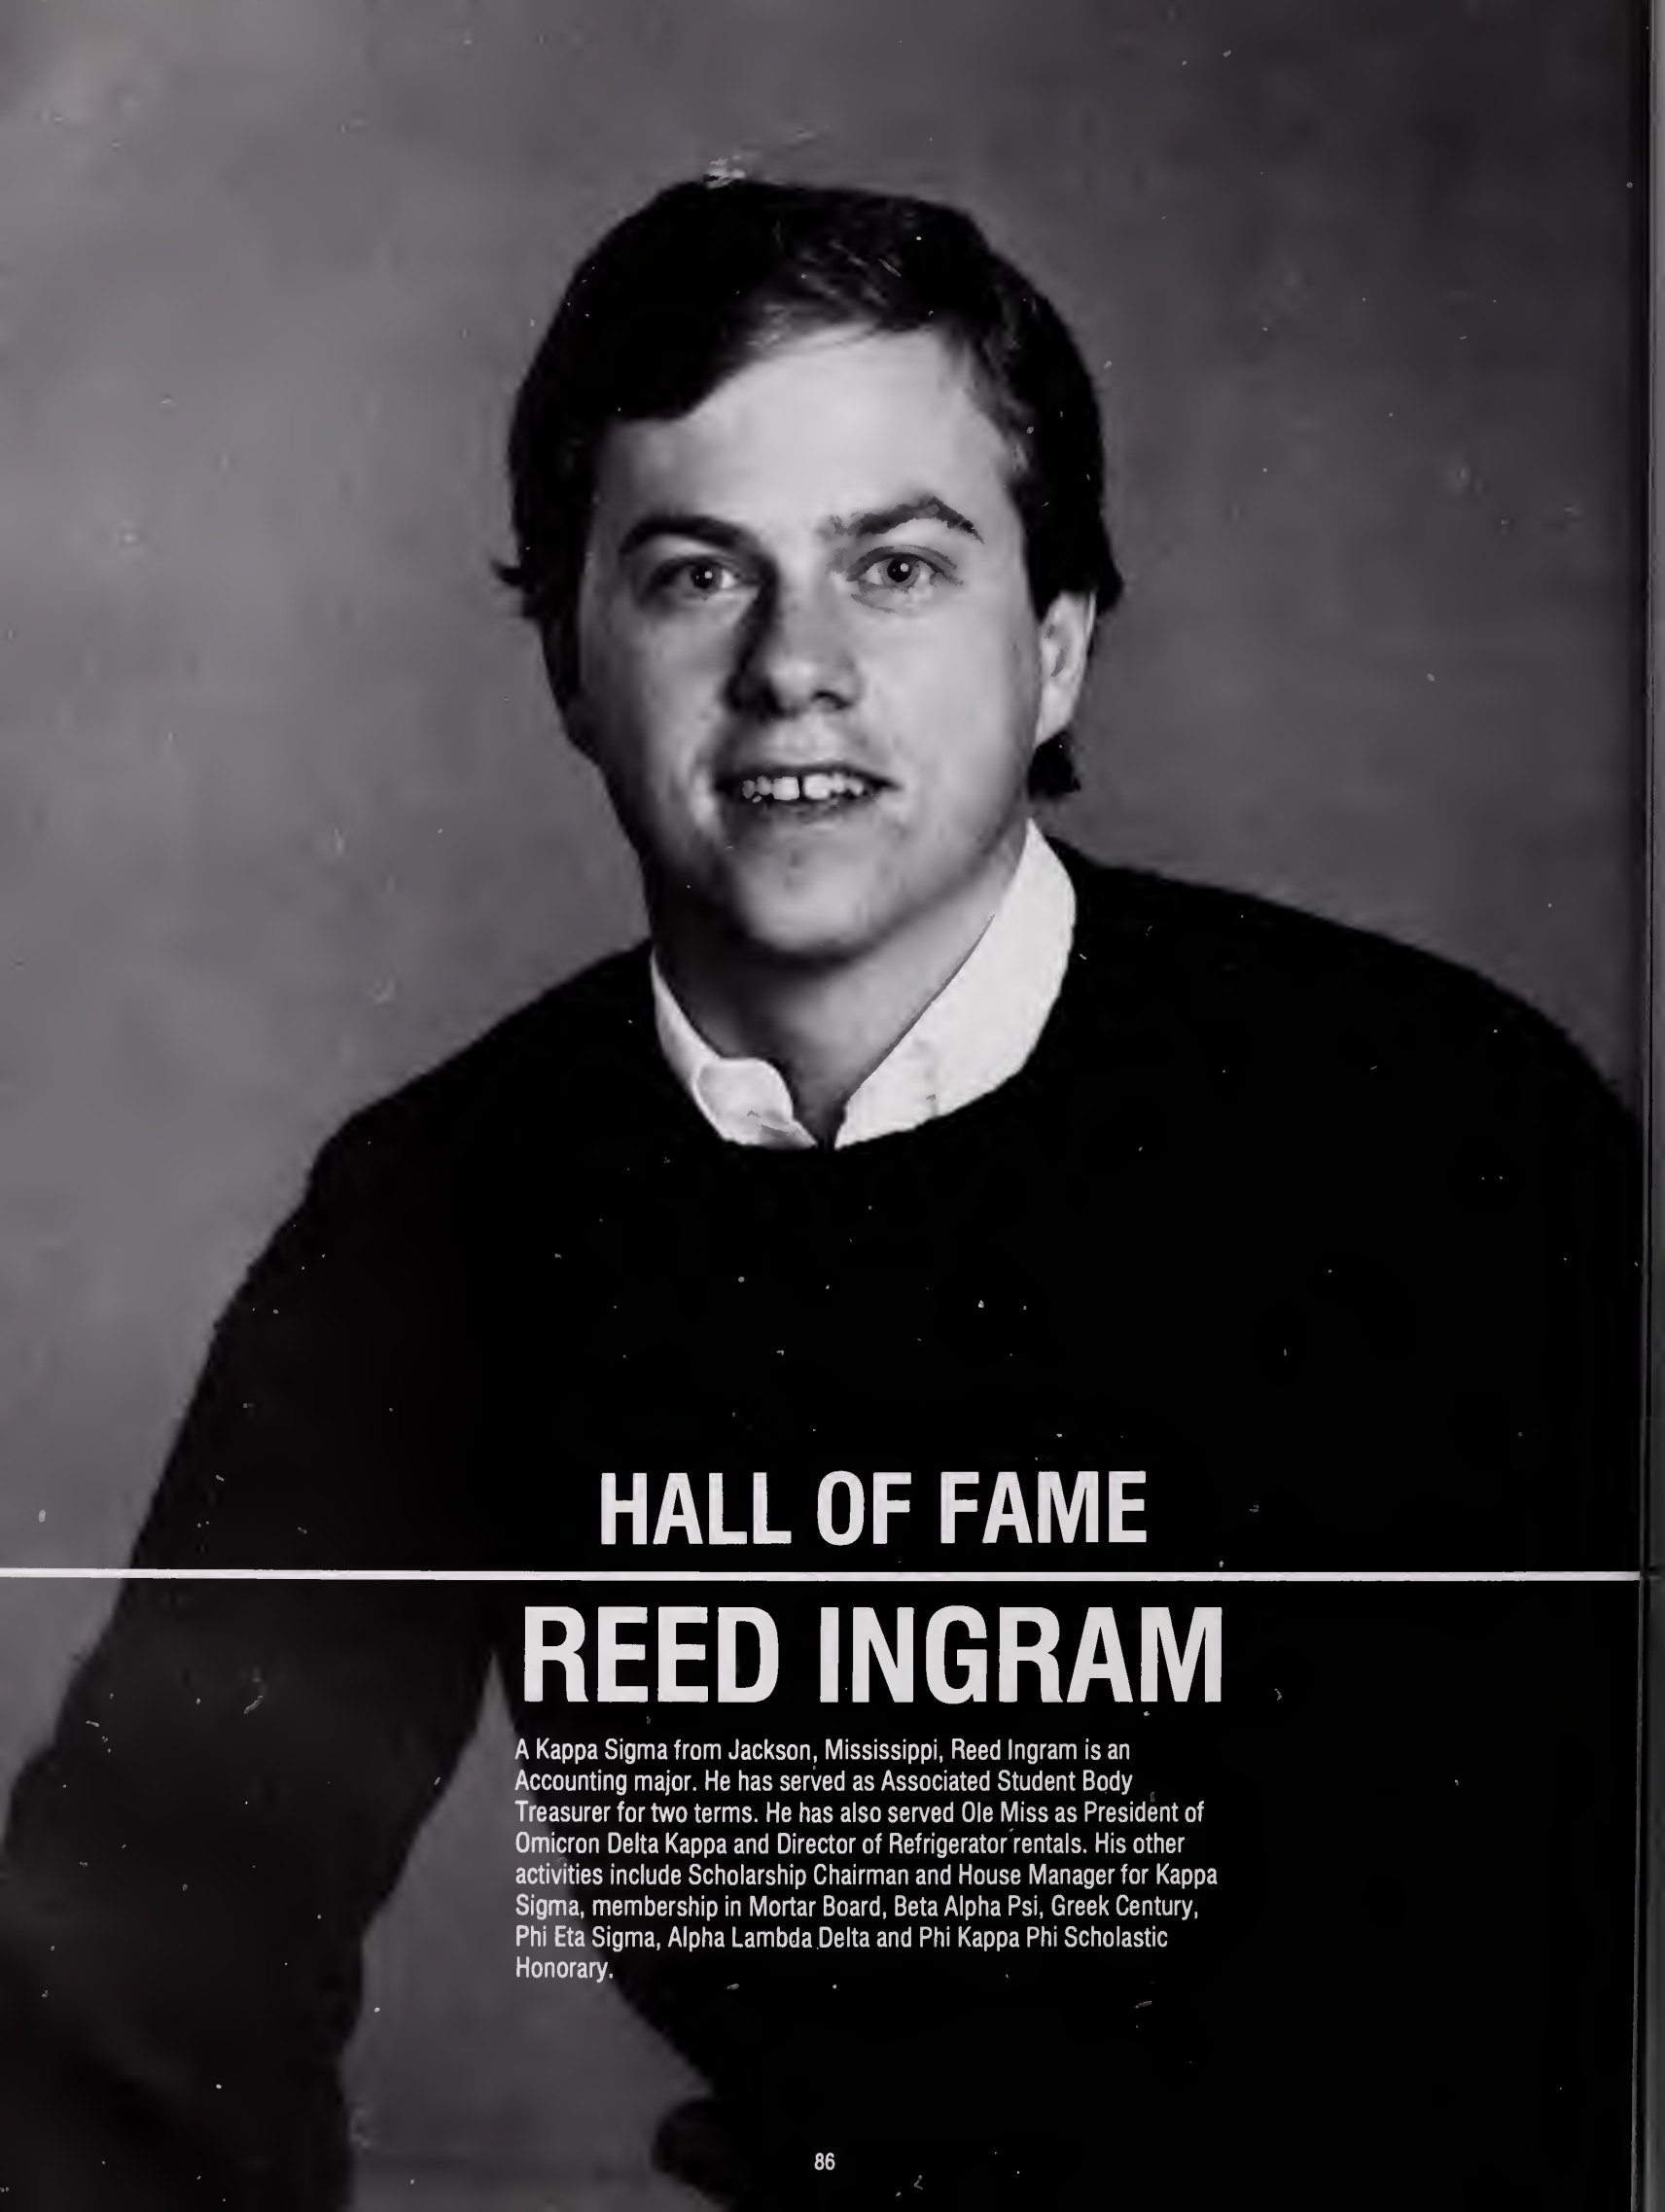

The Hall of Fame is the highest honor a student can achieve at Ole Miss. To qualify for selection, a student must have an overall grade point average of 2.0, be classified as a senior and must not have been a previous recipient of the honor. A preliminary committee, made up of four university administrators, eight presidents of the various schools and ODK and the Mortar Board, the editor of the Daily Mississippian and the editor of the Ole Miss, shall each submit names of two people to serve as a Selection Committee to the Administration Committee. The Administration Committee, composed of the Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs, the Editor of the Ole Miss and the Presidents of Lambda Sigma and Phi Eta Sigma, mail the ballots to the Selection Committee. Each member of the Selection Committee is allowed to nominate eight people. These selections are tallied by the Administration Committee in strict closed session. A minimum of four undergraduates and a maximum of eight may be declared members. This year there are seven members of the Hall of Fame.

TAYLOR

Dr. William T. Taylor of Booneville, Mississippi, in June 1904, founded the Marcus Elvis Taylor Memorial at the University of Mississippi out of affection and regard to his son, the late Dr. Marcus Elvis Taylor, an honored alumnus of the University of the class of 1871. The memorial was a "benevolent regard and good will for the youth of the state and the interest and work of the University of Mississippi, and for the encouragement of meritorious scholarship and deportment." This memorial fund provides scholarship to students nominated for outstanding scholarship in a particular field combined with superior work in all other subjects. The number awarded annually may not be more than one percent of the student body. Each medal has engraved upon it the name of the nominating department. A faculty committee selects those students to be so recognized for "meritorious scholarship and deportment" from those nominated by the participating division of the University.

Established originally as a national women's honor society, Mortar Board is now one of the highest senior honor groups for both men and women. Tassels, the local chapter has been an active part of the Ole Miss campus since its founding in 1939. Mortar Board has a limit of 95 members. Selections are based on leadership, scholarship, service and at least a 3.0 overall g.p.a.

Mortar Board is a society that challenges the individual and the groups to provide thoughtful leadership to the campus and community, to create an environment of effective communication and to move toward a meaningful goal. The society continues to support the improvement of the status of men and women.

Lambda Sigma

Lambda Sigma is a national sophomore honor society whose purpose is to foster leadership, scholarship, fellowship, and a spirit of service among the freshman class. It also is very active in promoting the interests of Ole Miss in all ways.

All freshmen with a minimum grade point of 3.0 may apply for membership in Iota chapter. Selection is made in the spring by a committee composed of active society members and other campus leaders.

Rho Lambda signifies "Panhellenic leadership." This organization seeks to honor those sorority women who have exhibited the highest qualities of leadership and service to Panhellenic and their sorority. The purpose of this organization is to further the ideals and principles of the Panhellenic woman, and to establish and perpetuate the fraternity system on our campus.

PRESIDENT CATHERINE ROBILIO
 VICE-PRESIDENT NANCY CHIEN
 SECRETARY PRISCILLA YARBROUGH
 TREASURER MARY V. WILSON

Phi Eta Sigma

Phi Eta Sigma was founded for the sole purpose of encouraging high scholastic achievement among freshman students in institutions of higher learning. The organization operates under the assumption that obtaining good grades early in one's college career serves as a strong incentive for a continued high level of academic performance in subsequent years and thus benefits the student as well as the university community. In seeking to encourage scholarship, the Ole Miss chapter of Phi Eta Sigma sponsors several activities designed to benefit the academic population on campus. Foremost of these is our Homecoming Lecture Series.

Phi Kappa Phi

Phi Kappa Phi is the highest scholastic honorary a student may receive at the University of Mississippi. The primary object of the honor society is to recognize and encourage superior scholarship in all academic disciplines. To be elected to membership, an undergraduate student must be a senior or second semester junior exhibiting high standards of scholarship and character. Graduate students must have distinguished records placing them among the most able in their classes. Election of faculty denotes a significant contribution to their field.

Greek Century

The Greek Century was founded at the University of Mississippi in April of 1985. After the chapter of Order of Omega dissolved, the fraternity leaders across our campus searched for an organization to honor those who had accomplished great works within their own fraternal group as well as in campus activities. With the assistance of Mr. Reardon, Greek Century was formed to recognize the top one hundred greek men at Ole Miss.

The Greek Century strives to select those men who exemplify the epitome of scholarship, leadership and fraternal character. The Greek Century is primarily a service organization, but does have strong social tendencies. The members must have a 2.75 grade point average and at least junior classification.

Though the Greek Century is a new society on campus, all indications point to a strong future for this greek honorary.

Beta Gamma Sigma

Johnny Simpson, Judy Spear, Jill Sanders, Angela Dawn Cook (pres.), Robyn Young, Patricia Thompson

Beta Gamma Sigma is a national scholastic honor society in the field of business and administration. Beta Gamma Sigma chapters may be chartered only in those schools of business and accountancy by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business. The University of Mississippi chapter of Beta Gamma Sigma was chartered in 1944.

To be eligible for Beta Gamma Sigma membership, students must rank in the top five percent of the junior class, the top ten percent of the senior class, or in the top twenty percent of those receiving master's degrees. The purpose of Beta Gamma Sigma are to encourage and reward scholarship and accomplishment among students of business administration, to promote the advancement of education in the art and science of business, and to foster integrity in the conduct of business operations.

Tau Beta Pi

Tau Beta Pi, a national engineering honor society, was founded in 1885 to recognize students of superior scholarship and outstanding character in all fields of engineering.

Since the establishment of the first chapter at Lehigh University, Tau Beta Pi has grown to 192 chapters located throughout the country. The Mississippi Beta Chapter was founded in 1969 and is one of two chapters in Mississippi. Membership is by invitation. A senior must be in the top fifth of his or her engineering class or a junior in the top eighth of his or her class. A candidate must show exemplary character, personal integrity, breadth of interest both inside and outside engineering, adaptability and unselfish activity.

Alpha Epsilon Delta

As the Pre-medical Honor Society, one of the main functions of Alpha Epsilon Delta is to encourage and recognize publicly outstanding scholastic achievements among premedical and premedical students. The selection of all worthy candidates and the election, initiation, registration and public recognition of new members and the stimulation of others to strive for such recognition is an important activity for the chapter. Thus, a major responsibility of the chapter president and the faculty advisor is to see that every qualified student is considered for membership as soon as possible.

Chi Epsilon

Chi Epsilon is a national honor society for Civil Engineering students. The objectives of the Ole Miss Chapter are to maintain and promote the status of Civil Engineering as an ideal profession at the University of Mississippi, to bestow honor upon civil engineering juniors, seniors and graduate students who have demonstrated exceptional scholarship and to develop the qualities of the chapter, practicality and sociability in each member of the chapter. In order to carry out these objectives the chapter provides a number of services such as organizing an EIT review course, providing free tutoring to other civil engineering students, writing an annual alumni newsletter, setting up displays and projects for Career Day and assisting in Engineering High School programs such as TEAMS and MATHCOUNTS. To foster sociability, members participate in pizza parties, bowling outings and a spring picnic. In the spring of 1986 a contingent of Ole Miss members will travel to Michigan State University to participate in the Chi Epsilon National Conclave.

"Leading the Way In the Pursuit of Visions for an Even Better Ole Miss." With this Slogan, the Black Student Union kicked off what was to be its most exciting year ever. The BSU opened the school year by having Chancellor Turner welcome our freshmen to the university. On September 16, 1985, the organization began the month long "Free South Africa" campaign. For four weeks Ole Miss students were bombarded with information on the apartheid system of government in South Africa. Those efforts were to culminate on October 11. On that day, over 100 students, faculty and members of the community marched from the Student Union to the Oxford square in protest of apartheid system of government in South Africa. Their efforts were not futile because several members of the U.S. Congress received word of the march and vowed to support economic sanctions against South Africa.

Although the "Free South Africa" campaign was the BSU's most significant undertaking, there were a host of other activities planned such as the fall banquet and the Homecoming picnic.

HONORS

The Honors Program, established in 1982, coordinates special academic offerings that intensify the educational experience of the exceptional student. The Honors Program is a separate department that facilitates the arrangement of a program of studies for the superior undergraduate students enrolled in any School or College at the University of Mississippi. A rigorous curriculum has been designed to meet the educational needs of selected students, especially those planning to continue graduate studies or to enter the professionals.

THE OLE MISS BMW CLUB

The BMW Club of Ole Miss was founded in 1983 when the poor man's luxury car, the 318i, was first introduced. It was then that a rash of beamers hit the Ole Miss campus, replacing the Cutlass and Regal as the Most Desirable Automobile for an Ole Miss Student.

Requirements for membership are only that you own a BMW: year and make are inconsequential. The club has no meetings and no social activities. Instead, they acknowledge one another by waving through their standard sunroofs.

COMMITTEE OF 100 CHURCH OF GOD IN CHRIST FELLOWSHIP

The Church of God In Christ (COGIC) Fellowship is a religious organization organized in the Fall of 1984. It is a segment of the Church of God In Christ, Inc. Elder Edwin B. Smith is the minister of the COGIC Fellowship. The purpose of this organization is to praise God and to learn more about the Word of God. We want to inform students and others of God's grace and salvation. We have choir rehearsal on Mondays in the Y building at 6:00pm and have fellowship service on Tuesdays in the Y Building at 7:00pm.

RHO EPSILON GAMMA IOTA SIGMA

Gamma Iota Sigma is a national collegiate insurance fraternity and is the only one in the United States. The purpose of the organization is to improve the quality of insurance education on the campuses and to serve as a liaison between the campus and the insurance industry. Mu chapter of Ole Miss was organized in 1976 and has remained active since that time. In a typical year some two dozen speakers from all segments of the insurance industry will visit the Ole Miss campus and speak to the insurance society. Mu chapter has also hosted the annual management conference for the various insurance schools around the country. Membership is available to insurance majors and those who have taken at least one insurance class.

DELTA SIGMA PI

Delta Sigma Pi founded in 1907 at New York University, is a professional fraternity organized to foster the study of business in universities, to encourage scholarship and social activity and to promote a closer affiliation between students and the business world. Founded in 1927 and boasting one of the largest alumni rolls of any chapter in the fraternity, the Alpha Phi chapter at the University of Mississippi is dedicated to the goals of professional education and service. Membership is composed of business and accountancy students elected by the chapter at the beginning of each semester. During the year, members' educational experiences are enriched by a variety of professional programs, service projects, leadership opportunities and social activities.

CHANCELLOR GERALD TURNER

... In this special time, at this special place, may our resolve be strong: our commitment deep: our efforts tireless: and our hearts united. As we have shared in our "legacy of achievement," may we together provide "vision for tomorrow."

On August 25, 1984, the newly inaugurated Chancellor Gerald Turner delivered these words to a crowd of Ole Miss faculty, students, and friends. As they sat and listened, they probably would have never imagined how far this new, young Chancellor would take the university in just two short years. As of January 23, Turner and his "Campaign for Ole Miss" have raised nearly 24 million dollars in private funds, and is just one million short of its minimum goal of 25 million.

"We are ahead of schedule and I wouldn't be surprised if we were close to $30 million when the campaign is over," said Turner. "We had hoped to be at $20 million and have 300 founding members of the Ole Miss Associates by the end of December 1985."

Contributions from the 300 Founding Members of the Associates Program totaled $322,000 last year and will go towards academic support. The Ole Miss Associates each donated $1,000 to the campaign. Turner has set membership goals for the Associates program at 500 by the end of 1986 and 1,000 by 1990. More than $6 million given to the campaign will go to the University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson, which has been hit hard by the budget cuts.

Robert Khayat, vice chancellor of university affairs, said he has high hopes of getting close to $30 million for the campaign by next year. "Last year was the first year to have the Associates Program and it really worked out well for academic purposes," said Khayat. "Everything's going really well. We'll just continue the campaign aggressively throughout the year."

REBELS HAVE DISAPPOINTING SEASON

Coach Jake Gibbs is disappointed when he looks back over the 1985 baseball season. His Rebels who finished at 20-28, could just not play consistent defense throughout the season. "Our inability to play consistent defense was our downfall," Gibbs said after experiencing his second consecutive losing season.

Pitching and giving away too many games with costly errors was the story of the season. In addition to defense, the hitting was inconsistent also. But the Rebels did sport a .286 team batting average which was a far cry from 1984. "We went into the season with hitting and leaving men on base being our primary concerns," Gibbs said. "But hitting didn't cost us near the games it did a year ago."

So the 1985 season could be summed up with one word: Basics. Take away some costly errors and pitching downfalls and the Rebels could have had a much more productive season. Coach Gibbs felt the slide started after the Rebels had won three in a row and had Memphis State at home next. "We lost to Memphis State, 5-4 in 12 innings," Gibbs said. "Then we had a double-header with Alabama and blew a 2-1 lead in the first game, and a 6-4 lead in the second."

Gibbs felt good about the team effort though. "They kept hustling and always wanted to win," he said. "Never once did I see a player give up." The Rebels finished the season in the conference cellar for the second year in a row. Gibbs felt talent wise that this team was much better than their record indicated.

The season was not a total loss though, as many Rebels had an outstanding year individually. Kyle Gordon was voted MVP as he broke the career home run hitting record at Ole Miss. He has accumulated 28 home runs in only two seasons. He was also selected to the first team All-SEC and was the only SEC player chosen on the first team Academic All-American Team.

Doug Duvall was a pleasant surprise as he went 33 innings, had a record of 2-2 and an ERA of 2.7. The bullpen was also more productive this year and was led by Skipper Wright. Darryl Oliver was another Rebel who had a good year as he was chosen to the All-Sec team and the All-South Region team.

Joining Gordon on the All-SEC Academic Team were Joe Gex, David Bass, Doug Duvall and David Mattina. On the whole, the Ole Miss baseball team was represented very well as far as the student-athlete is concerned.

When asked about the upcoming season, Gibbs proclaimed, "With the addition of five good recruits and some hard work on basics, we will be right in the thick of the SEC race."

A SEASON THAT COULD HAVE BEEN

The 1985 season for the Ole Miss Rebels was characterized by "what if's?" For example what if a) Ray Dempsey goes for it on the 4th down, b) Nathan Wonsley converts a 4th and 1, c) Kent Austin was able to play against Auburn, d) Ole Miss didn't rough Chris Carpenter, or e) Roland Barbay played clean football.

Although the record didn't show it, the Rebels had some very outstanding accomplishments this season. The Rebels, for the third year in a row, harbored the Egg Bowl trophy bragging rights with a 45-27 whipping of Mississippi State. Overall as a team, Ole Miss finished seventh in the Southeastern Conference with all six others being ranked in the top 20. Quarterback Kent Austin, free safety Jeff Noblin, and defensive tackle Benton Reed were all named to the Academic All American squad.

Individually, punter Bill Smith was named to numerous All-America teams. Smith finished fifth in the nation and second in the SEC in punting with a 45.3 average and landed 9 out of 14 attempts inside the yard line. He also broke the record for SEC average in a season. Kent Austin broke John Fourcade's school record for most career yards of 5,572. Bryan Owen tied a school record of 4 field goals in a game. Special teams ace Willie Goodloe was among the kickoff return leaders most of the season. J. R. Ambrose was named to the Football News 2nd team All American along with Jeff Herrod who was honorable mention.

The Rebels finished 4-6-1 but with starters coming back, the Rebs definitely will challenge next year for the top half of the SEC.

MEMPHIS STATE

After battling one another for 59 minutes and 29 seconds, the 1985 meeting between the Rebs and the Tigers of Memphis State came down to a Ray Dempsey decision, a decision most fans didn't like. Memphis State's Walter Hays gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead on a two-yard run that capped a 69 yard drive after a Bryan Owen field goal attempt was blocked. The momentum switched when the Rebs' Everett Flakes intercepted a Danny Sparkman pass at the Memphis State 40. Then Joe Mickles closed out the drive with a 31 yard run that tied the score at 7-7. The Rebels also put together another impressive drive starting at their own nine and ending with a Bryan Owen 46 yard field goal on the last play of the half for a 10-7 lead.

Nine seconds into the second half the Rebels were down 14-10 as Andree Rogers fumbled the opening kickoff and Terry Douglass of Memphis St. recovered in the end zone. The Rebs then marched 94 yards in 7 plays as Rogers redeemed himself when Kent Austin connected on a 28 yard pass with 1:18 left in the quarter, giving Ole Miss a 17-14 lead. Memphis State soon found new life as a Kent Austin pass was intercepted by Eric Fairs with 5:21 to go in the game. The Tigers drove down to the 5 for a goal. Billy Brewer's "no-name defense" stiffened and held for 3 straight plays for a 4th and goal on the 3. Next came the decision with seconds to go to kick a field goal and opt for a tie rather than the win. The field goal was good and the Tigers pulled out a more satisfying tie. OLE MISS 17/MEMPHIS STATE 17.

ARKANSAS

It can be said that this game was a typical Arkansas-Ole Miss game. The game with the 14th ranked Razorbacks started out sluggish but finished strong. The game was scoreless through the first quarter due to the strong defensive play of both teams. The Hogs struck first with a safety on a mishandled snap by punter Bill Smith. They soon followed that with a field goal to take a 5-0 lead at the half.

The Rebs took advantage of Arkansas'

Bobby Joe Edmunds fumbled punt when Ole Miss' Ricky Myers recovered on the Hogs' 30. Five plays later, Kent Austin hit tailback Nathan Wonsley for a 10 yd. TD, but the two-point conversion failed. With Ole Miss leading 6-5, Arkansas retaliated with a 66 yard drive that was capped with a one yard run by Derrick Thomas, but their two point conversion failed also. So the Hogs led 11-6. With 13:22 left in the game the Rebels recaptured the lead again when Joe Mickles scored from three yards out to give Ole Miss a 12-11 lead, as the two-point conversion failed again. Things were looking good until a costly fumble by Shawn Sykes on the Rebel 30 was turned into a five yard touchdown run by Arkansas' Carl Miller for a 17-11 lead with 8:47 remaining. Ole Miss failed twice more to take the lead when Wonsley was stopped on a fourth and two at the Arkansas 22. The next opportunity was stopped when Austin was intercepted by David Dudley for a touchdown to give the Razorbacks a 24-12. The Rebels did score once more when Austin hit Jamie Holder for a touchdown to give the Razorbacks a 39 yard scoring pass with four seconds left.

Austin, who broke John Fourcade's school record for most career yards (5,572) summed up the game by stating, "We've just got to find a way to win." OLE MISS 19/ARKANSAS 24.

ARKANSAS ST.

If it were not for the last drive of the game, the Ole Miss vs. Arkansas State game could have ended in a major upset. The drive came with the Rebs trailing 16-12, Ole Miss getting its points off of 4 Bryan Owen field goals. The last drive was sparked by 3 pass plays from Kent Austin to J. R. Ambrose, and ended with a 10 yard touchdown pass to Andre Rogers. The extra point was blocked and Ole Miss had an 18-16 lead with just over a minute to play. The Indians tried one last desperation drive, but that was halted with Everett Flakes intercepting an Arkansas State pass.

Several times the Reb defense and special teams were called upon to save the day. After shutting down the Arkansas State running game for most of the afternoon, the special teams came through with 2 blocked punts by Jonathan Shelley. Both of these set up 2 of Bryan Owen's 4 field goals, which tied an Ole Miss record. OLE MISS 18/ARKANSAS STATE 16

TULANE

It finally happened. The Rebels put together some offense for the first time this season. With Kent Austin injured, David McKinney got the starting nod for the Rebels. With the Rebels leading 13-10 behind a blocked punt by Willie Goodloe (which was recovered for a touchdown) David McKinney went down with wrist and leg cramps. Out comes Austin who hasn't taken a snap all week long.

Kent then proceeded to drive the Rebels 51 yards and hit Mario Perry on a 3 yard scoring pass to give the Rebels a 20-10 lead. "That was the first snap he had taken this week," Brewer said. "He's proven what kind of mental toughness he has." Later in the final quarter, Austin hit J. R. Ambrose with a 50 yard pass that set up Nathan Wonsley's 33 yard touchdown run. Wonsley, who finished the evening with 144 yards on 15 carries and a TD, had his best game ever as an Ole Miss Rebel. "We just made up our mind to do it," Wonsley said.

"The whole team went out and executed." The Rebels did regroup and did it despite seven turnovers. This was the game the Rebels needed and they got it. OLE MISS 27/TULANE 10

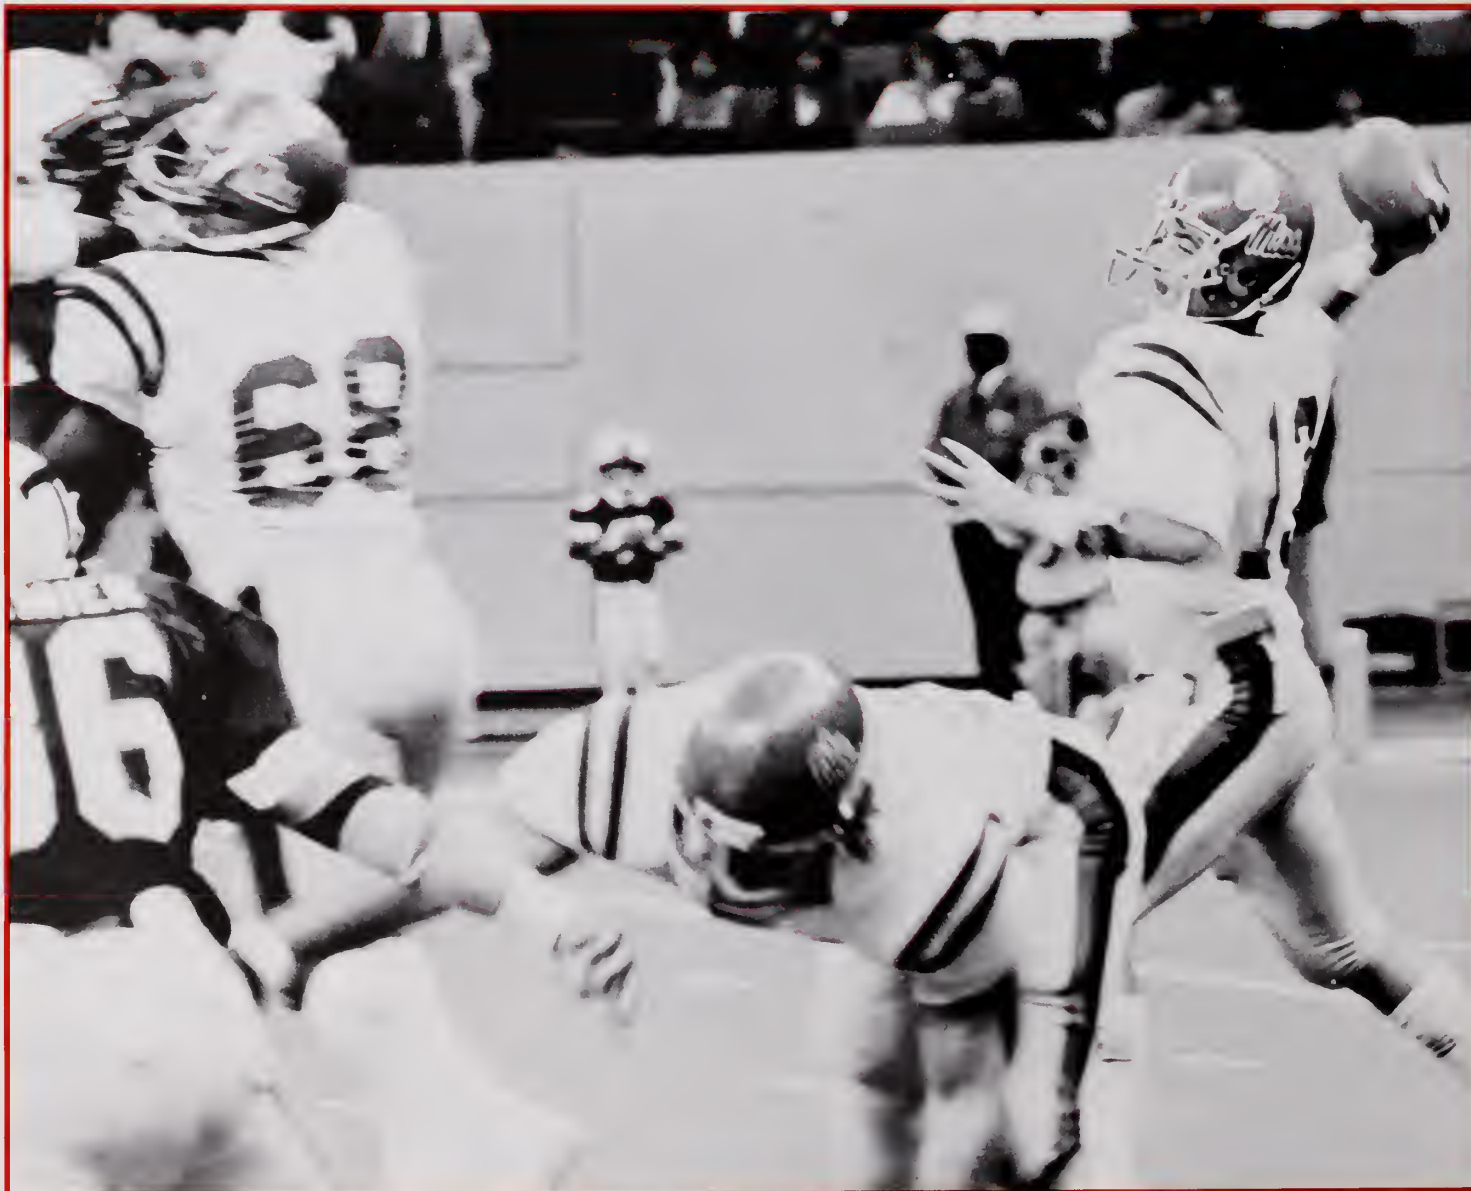

LSU

Even though the Tiger defense played a great game, the Ole Miss Rebels didn't get the breaks they needed. "I'm proud of my football team," said Brewer despite the loss, "but I know the LSU Tigers are clean living. There were three fumbles and three deflections and we couldn't get a hold of any."

The biggest play of the day was the obvious "cheap shot" administered to Kent Austin by LSU defensive end Roland

Barbay on a third and 56 late in the second quarter. "The guy came in and hit me low. I mean, I usually don't say things like this, but it was a cheap shot and he knows it," said a dejected Austin. When asked if he thought Barbay went for the injured knee, Austin didn't hesitate to make a statement. "I think so," he said, "he went for the leg and got up laughing."

The difference though was the LSU defense, combined with the running of Dalton Hilliard. Hilliard's first one yard TD run was set up by a fumbled punt by Willie Goodloe on the rain soaked field. He also added a four yard TD run to end the scoring for the national TV audience. "Everybody played hard, but LSU came up with the breaks today," said Rebel defensive tackle Mike Ftizsimmons. GEORGIA

At least there was one bright side to the 49-21 thrashing the Rebels took at Memorial Stadium, there was an open date coming up. "I've never seen a football team need one as badly as we do," said Brewer. Early penalties and turnovers hurt the Rebels' chances early. A fumble recovery on the Reb 48 and an offside penalty set up the Dogs' first touchdown. Ole Miss then took advantage of a Georgia turnover and David McKinney starting again for the injured Austin, hit J. R. Ambrose for a 9-yard scoring pass to tie the score at 7-7. Then late in the half, the Rebs roughed Chris Carpenter, Georgia's punter, to keep their drive alive and set up a James Jackson touchdown for 1 a 14-7 halftime lead. "We gave them two scores in the first half," Brewer said. "You can't do that against good football teams and expect to come away a winner."

The second half was a nightmare. A fumble and an interception off of an attempted option pass by Antonio Harris set up Georgia's next two scores in the second half for a 28-7 lead. Georgia also added 3 more scores in the second half, one being a 51 yard fake punt by David McCloskey. McKinney added another TD pass in the 3rd quarter when he hit flanker Andre Rogers for a 40-yard pass. Then in the final quarter, Brewer went out with Freshman Brian Young. In his first game as a Rebel, Young completed 4 of 7 passes for 55 yards and a touchdown pass of 18 yards to J. R. Ambrose.

"I thought he handled himself extremely well for a freshman," said Brewer of Young. "I think we'll see more of him." OLE MISS 21/GEORGIA 49.

VANDERBILT

Kent Austin returned to action and his presence was felt during this game. The Rebels used their week off to recuperate and proceeded to give Vandy a good old-fashioned whipping. "We're undefeated in our new season," said Brewer after the game. The opening drive set the tone for the game as Willie Goodloe started things off with a 54-yard kickoff return. Austin then completed passes to Jamie Holder and Andre Rogers which landed the Rebs on the Vandy 2 yard line. Tailback Nathan Wonsley finished things off with a 2-yd. plunge that left Ole Miss leading 7-0 with 1:07 off the clock.

Things didn't stop there either as Holder made a great catch in the endzone to expand the lead to 14-0 with 1:43 left in the first quarter. Austin then hit J. R. Ambrose on a tipped-around 16-yard scoring pass that was set up by a blocked field goal by Willie Goodloe. The defense decided they wanted to get in on the fun too as they recorded two safeties, one by Benton-Reed and the other by Morris. Freshman Bryan Owen also decided to contribute a 50-yard field goal which was his longest ever. Austin finished his day off with a 68-yard scoring bomb to J. R., his second scoring reception of the day. The Commodores finally put 7 on the board, but it was way too late to even matter. Ole Miss showed on this Saturday afternoon that they are only one step away from where they could be playing. OLE MISS 35/VANDY 7

"Notre Dame is one of the top football teams we've played this season," said Brewer, "we just couldn't do anything with them today." It was the same old story for the Ole Miss offense, which couldn't get started all day. The Irish drew first blood on a 41 yard field goal by kicker John Carrey. They added two more touchdowns to lead 17-0 at halftime.

The second half saw the emergence of Chris Osgood, the standout freshman - called upon to steer the Rebels. The play of the game for the Irish came when Ole Miss was threatening to score. Nathan Wonsley coughed up the ball on the Notre Dame 16, and the Irish recovered and returned it to the Rebel 5 yard line. Allen Pinkett, the All America tailback, scored for the second time of the day and Notre Dame led 24-0. The Rebels finally managed to score midway through the final period when Osgood drove the Rebels 62 yards and hit Ricky Myers on a ten yard scoring strike. Then with 2:34 left in the game, freshman Chuck Cleveland scored from 1 yard out. "I was disappointed by today's game," Osgood said, "but you learn something new every week. This just means that I'll have to work harder in the future." OLE MISS 14/NOTRE DAME 37

TENNESSEE

Neyland Stadium was the scene of a bittersweet SEC football contest between Ole Miss and a Sugar Bowl bound Tennessee. The Vols' big opportunity came after free safety Chris White blocked a Bill Smith punt which Tennessee recovered on the Ole Miss 38 yard line. Seven plays and three minutes later, Sam Henderson hit paydirt from one yard away. Ole Miss put together one of its best drives of the season early in the second quarter driving 75 yards in 10 plays. Shawn Sykes capped the drive with a one yard plunge. Tennessee answered that rebuff with 27 straight points without a reply from the Rebels.

"The second half was the poorest we've played all year long," said Ole Miss head coach Brewer. "It appears that our kids are mentally tired, which I can understand." Ole Miss was unable to get the ball to its big play target J. R. Ambrose until there was 1:27 left in the game. Ambrose's single reception came on a 19 yard touchdown toss from Mark Young. The Rebels close their season next week against Mississippi State. "We'll play like hell," he said, "and take the strongest and the ones hanging on and go to war." OLE MISS 14/TENNESSEE 34

Mark Young couldn't explain why

everything worked when he quarterbacked the Ole Miss Rebels against State in the annual Egg Bowl. "I can't explain why everything worked so well," said Young. McKinney got off to a bad start by throwing an interception to MSU safety Kirby Jackson. It set up a one yard touchdown run by Don Smith with 7:29 left in the opening quarter. Brewer put Young in on the next series, and he quickly hit split end J. R. Ambrose on a 38-yard touchdown pass with 1:06 to go in the quarter, tying the game. After Willy Goodloe gave Ole Miss good field position with a 55 yard punt return, Young hit flanker Jamie Holder with a 12 yard scoring pass. Bryan Owen's 41 yard field goal with 8:59 left gave Ole Miss a 17-7 lead going into the half.

Osgood, bothered by a bruised shoulder, could not move the team while Smith led the Bulldogs back to within 17 with two one yard runs touchdown Brewer put Young back in and again the freshman marched the offense, setting up a three yard Shawn Sykes touchdown run.

"It's needless to say how happy I am for our football team," said Brewer after the game. "Our team understands what a difficult season we had . . . maybe the win will make it a better winter." OLE MISS 45/STATE 27

REBELS HAVE SEASON OF UPS AND DOWNS

The 1985-86 season can best be described as being frustrating. Over and over again the Rebs found themselves struggling to rebound from a bad break. They started with losses to Vandy, Tennessee and Kentucky but then knocked off conference leading Florida at home. A bad loss to LSU in Baton Rouge was then followed with a thrilling one point victory at home over State. But then the Rebs fell at home to Auburn and on the road to Georgia. Most of the emphasis this year was on how the point guard situation would be handled due to the loss of Andre Laird, who was involved in an off-season car accident. "It was really tough to lose Andre who had two years of point guard experience in the SEC," said head coach Lee Hunt. "Only time will tell if he will ever be able to play again." The 13 man roster included just two seniors, three juniors, five sophomores and three freshmen. The players returning included seniors 6'7" Derek Horne, and 6'6" Curtis Ritchwood, 6'5" junior Joe Ayers, sophomores 6'1" Roderick Barnes, 6'5" Steve Calhoun, 6'1" Joe Coleman, 6'9" Todd Robinson and 6'7" Bruce Tranbarger.

"I can see a lot of unity in this group," says Hunt. "They worked very hard in the spring and summer and the chemistry among them is very good." Five newcomers will join the returnees on campus this season. Trying to pick up some slack for Andre at guard will be freshman Keith Kessinger and Ted Hunt. And helping out underneath will be junior college transfers Ronnie Simms and Eric Smith along with freshman Clint Stegall. "At Christmas I felt like we were right where we wanted to be with a 7-2 record. How far we go this season will depend very much on how our more experienced players respond to the competition and how injury-free we can stay," said Hunt. Curtis Ritchwood's dislocated thumb certainly didn't help matters as he had to miss three games. "The entire league is strong and our talent has improved but we are still a little behind the top dogs," explained Hunt. Even though the Rebs are not off to the best start, in Ole Miss history, there is very much potential to be seen in the Tad Smith Coliseum.

LADY REBELS ARE ABSOLUTELY AWESOME

Losing three starters off of last year's top five finish was devastating. This is certainly going to be a rebuilding year, right? Wrong. The Lady Rebs picked up where they left off last season to storm out to a 16-4 record and a number eight ranking by the end of January. "This team is so much better than I ever thought. It's amazing," exclaimed head coach Van Chancellor. With the loss of seniors Eugenia Connor, Marilyn Brooks and Deborah Temple it seemed inevitable that this year would be a down year, but not so. "The heart, determination and desire this team portrays is wonderful," said Chancellor. "This is definitely the best team I have ever been associated with." Certainly the presence of Jennifer Gillom has a lot to do with their success. She has received so many rewards there is not enough space to list them. "Jennifer is truly one of the greatest athletes in Ole Miss history," Chancellor proclaimed. "She was named the U.S. Olympic team player of the year and has carried our team many times this season."

The team has been ranked in the top 10 all season. Three of the team's four losses came to number one Texas, number two Georgia and number three Northeast Louisiana. "We have proven that we can play with the best in the country this year," said coach Chancellor. "Right now we are preparing to be the best we can be at the end of the season when it really counts." With the signing of four recruits, Coach Van Chancellor is very excited about the upcoming season and hopes things go as well as they have this year.

SQUAD TRAVELS TO HAWAII

Being ranked as one of the best teams in the country the Ole Miss cheerleading squad traveled to Honolulu to participate in the National Collegiate Cheerleading Championships. The competition was produced by the Universal Cheerleading Association and sponsored by the Ford Motor Company. Ten teams were chosen from around the country to participate and seven of those were chosen to perform live on NBC-TV. The Rebels had a great showing and finished as the fifth best team in the country.

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

This year's track team at Ole Miss will find themselves with a different face calling the shots, as head coach Joe Walker resigned to take the head coaching job at the University of Florida. His replacement, Ken Gibson, has plenty of work ahead of him to get the Rebels to rebound from a somewhat disappointing season. "We had a very disappointing season," Coach Walker said. "This team had some great athletes and very high expectations."

The team was not without highpoints throughout the season though. The Rebels dominated the state of Mississippi as they won the Ole Miss Invitational and the Mississippi State Triangular meet. Six Rebels were named to All-State team. Ole Miss took their largest squad ever to the NCAA meet. Individually, Baker Vinci was the standout as he won the SEC crown for the second consecutive year in pole vaulting. He followed that up with a fourth place finish in the NCAA's, which was the highest finish ever for an Ole Miss Rebel.

Coach Walker did point out that injuries had a lot to do with the limited success for the Rebs. "We had very many freak injuries throughout the year which were extremely uncommon," claimed Walker. Tony Dees was injured most of the season, along with Baker and Brian Pope who had nagging injuries all year. When asked how he would sum up his years at Ole Miss, Coach Walker said, "Wonderful, exciting and very proud to have had the opportunity to be involved with such a class program."

NETTERS TOP IN MISSISSIPPI SEC A YEAR AWAY

The Ole Miss Men's tennis team finished the 1985 season with an eighth place finish in the SEC tournament in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. "We had a very inconsistent year," said head coach Billy Chadwick. "We had good individual efforts, but never got it totally together as a group." At times though the Rebels looked very tough. They posted wins over Belhaven, Mississippi State and captured the Mississippi Intercollegiate tournament.

Individually, the Netters had many bright spots. Chuck Sobers won the number two singles flight at the Rice Invitational in Houston, Texas, with a 6-2, 6-2 win over Greg Hill of Texas A&M. He also reached the semi-finals of the SEC tournament. Neal Stapp reached the finals of the SEC Indoors and maintained a top 50 ranking all season. The Netters finished the year at 1-9, with a 1-7 SEC mark.

But Chadwick talks of the upcoming year with a big smile. "Next year, with four outstanding seniors and those excellent recruits, the Rebels should maintain a top 20 ranking."

LADY NETTERS HAVE BANNER SEASON

The Lady Netters finished third at the SEC Tournament in Auburn, Alabama and had two finalists and one champion. Sophomore Jackie Ruppert of Atlanta, captured the number four singles slot for her second consecutive SEC crown. Sophomore Jane Young of Toronto, Canada, was a runner-up at number one singles along with Heather Hartman at number three doubles. "This was my hardest working team ever," said coach Billy Chadwick. "We had wins for the first time over SMU, Cal-Irvine, North Carolina and Duke. We also had a second place finish behind Miami at the Catherine Sample tournament in Miami."

The Lady Netters finished the year with a 13-6 record and a 7-2 record in the conference. Jane Young and Jackie Ruppert captured All-SEC honors, while Young was also chosen to play in the NCAA tournament. Young finished out the year ranked 35 in the country, Barbara Smith was 59 and the duo of Smith and Ruppert were 19. The team as a whole was ranked in the top 20 for the entire season.

Coach Chadwick and Assistant Coach Jeff Anderson of Atlanta, look forward to the upcoming season, with the help of two freshmen and a junior college transfer.

REBEL GOLFERS FINISH WITH HIGHEST RANKING EVER

The 1985 golf season at Ole Miss was a banner year for Ernest Ross' Rebels. The Rebels ended the season ranked number four in the country. "I am really pleased with the play of all of our players this year," said Ross. "This was Ole Miss' best golf team in history."

The Rebels have gained a big reputation nationally over the last two years. They won team titles at the Dixie Intercollegiate, the Panhandle Intercollegiate, the Country Club of Jackson Intercollegiate and the Chris Schenkel Intercollegiate. They were also runners-up at the Imperial Lakes Intercollegites.

Leading the Rebs were co-SEC Players of the year, senior Dave Pegge of Louisville, Kentucky and Junior Darren Cole of Newborough, Australia. Pegge was named to the first team All-America for the second consecutive year. Pegge finished in the top five in five of the 12 tournaments, winning two of those and finishing as a runner-up in two more.

Cole was a top 10 finisher in all but three of the Rebels tournaments. He won one, was a runner-up twice and finished in a tie for sixth place in the NCAA Championships. Darren was also selected to the second Team All-America.

Ross tabbed the season a success due to the play of Pegge and Cole along with the consistency throughout the season at 3, 4 and 5. "Chip Sullivan, Glen Day and Lan Gooch all made tremendous improvements throughout the year," Ross claimed.

The 1986 year should be another exciting one as the Rebels signed four new freshmen. Along with the freshmen will be the return of All-American Darren Cole who will represent the USA against Japan in an all-star match in the fall. Ross is optimistic about the upcoming season due to the Rebels' "best signing year ever."

LADY REBEL SPIKERS HOST SEC TOURNAMENT

The Ole Miss women's volleyball team completed its 1985-86 season with a 28-16 overall record and a 3-6 SEC record. The was the most SEC victories ever since moving to the tournament format. The host Rebels finished fourth in the SEC after being seeded sixth. They also added two tournament titles and many individual honors to a very successful season.

The Lady Rebel spikers took first place honors in the Depaul Invitational along with their own Ole Miss Invitational. "We had a successful season this year and probably should have won eight of the 16 we lost. In those matches we just beat ourselves," Ole Miss coach Al Givens said. "If we could have played as well against LSU as we did in the Florida match we would have have been in the finals of the SEC tournament against Georgia. We plan to build upon the success we had this year with the addition of our new indoor facility and hard work this spring we should be in the SEC race again next season."

Individually, the Rebels had banner seasons. Angela Scott was named the MVP of the Depaul Invitational and was a member of the All-SEC team. Yolanda Biebrich was named MVP of the Ole Miss Invitational, made the All-Tournament team in the Tiger Classic and had 48 assists against Florida, which was an SEC tournament high. Julie Link was named to the All SEC Academic team and a member of the All-SEC Tournament team. Delores Flowers was also named to the All-SEC Tournament team and had the most kills in the SEC tournament.

FALL FRATERNITY

To Ole Miss students, fall Rush is practically a religious experience. Hundreds of students come each year at the end of summer to participate in it. They want to be Greek. The reasons for pledging are various: friendships, built-in social outings and contacts, the need to belong, and fun. The week prior to pledging, Rush, has been anticipated all year. Sororities start planning 10 months in advance. Some even begin rushing high school girls while the girls are in the tenth grade.

— SORORITY RUSH

Milly Moorhead

For guys, the "Pre-Rush" rush is not as intense, but their formal rush poses the same dilemmas and confusions as does the sorority rush. This year over 600 men participated in Rush and pledged. Over 600 girls participated in Rush, with 557 pledging. Quota was set at 64 for the women. On Bid-Day, everyone had the "Number One Pledge Class" and the hoopla and happiness made the long, tiring week all worth it.

PANHellenic

Panhellenic is the governing body of the 11 NPC and three NPHC sororities on the Ole Miss campus. The council promotes understanding and cooperation among the members of sororities and regulates and enforces all rules concerning Rush, pledging and initiation. Panhellenic also promotes intellectual achievement and scholarship. The Panhellenic council is made up of the President Allison Humphreys, Vice-President Jodie Champlin, Vice-President NPHC Sharon Floyd, Secretary Marianne Bradford and Treasurer Cathy Cook.

Over the past year Panhellenic has participated in various service projects such as collecting for the Battered Women's Home, Can Good Drives for the needy, and contributing to the Christmas store in Oxford. Also, Panhellenic along with the Intrafraternity Council has had an active part in the Mississippi Blood Drive as well as forming Greek Aid.

AR IN REVIEW

1986 WHAT WAS IN

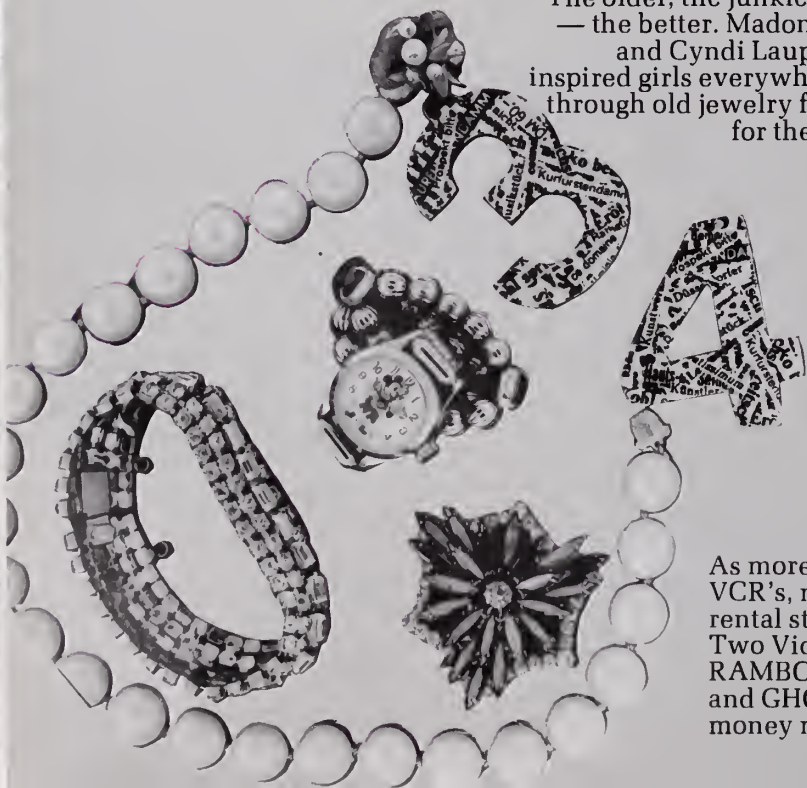

RAMBO FEVER

Sylvester Stallone hit the silver screen again as America's number one hero — Rambo, bringing along with him a new sense of patriotism (along with a lot of tacky commercialism).

GAUDY WAS GLAMOROUS

The older, the junkier, the tackier — the better. Madonna's rosaries and Cyndi Lauper's earrings inspired girls everywhere to search through old jewelry for treasures for their wardrobe.

THE VCR'S BIGGEST YEAR YET

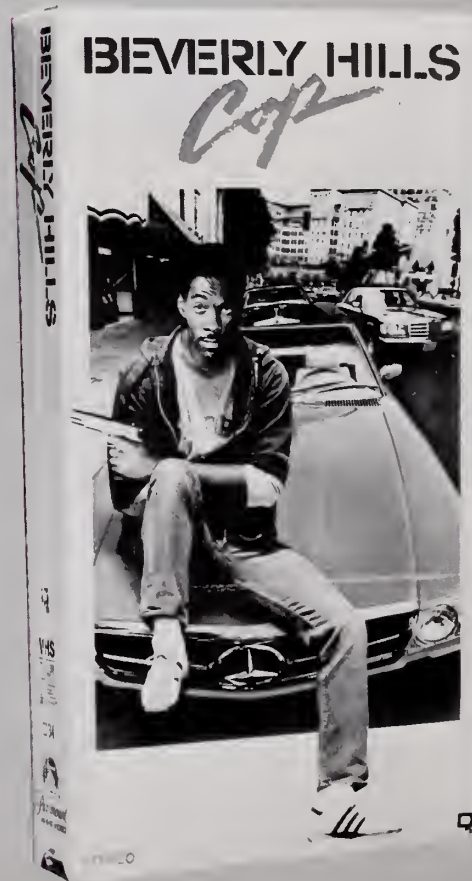

As more and more people bought VCR's, more and more cassette rental stores sprung up. Take Two Video in Oxford reports RAMBO, BEVERLY HILLS COP, and GHOSTBUSTERS as the top money makers.

SWATCHES TICKED IN

All across the U.S. and the Ole Miss campus, people shelled out 30 big ones for a plastic watch, available in every design from paisley to pinstripes.

MIAMI VICE

1986 WHAT WAS IN

Classic Coke, Cherry Coke, New Coke, Diet Coke...

1985 was the year when Coke was it, and it, and it... (you get the picture). Thousands everywhere revolted when Coca-Cola introduced their new Coke. Shortly thereafter, the old Coke was brought back (called Classic Coke). It, in turn, was followed by Cherry Coke, Diet Coke, Caffeine Free Coke, and, last but not least, Caffeine Free Diet Coke.

50 Things Not to Forget

Paisley, paisley, and more paisley... big sweaters... Guess jeans... BMW's... "The Bill Cosby Show"... "Dynasty"... "The Jagged Edge"... "The Color Purple"... Sylvester Stallone and "Rocky IV"... Meryl Streep and Robert Redford... David Letterman... Fishhook Bracelets... Stephen Spielberg... Space Shuttles... MTV... Dire Straits... USA for Africa... REM... Duran Duran... Live Aid... Opus... Teddy Ruxpin and the Cabbage Patch Kids... Wayfarers, Ray Bans, and Vuarnets (all with strings)... Dr. Ruth... AIDS... Ecstasy... Joan Rivers... the Chicago Bears... the Superbowl Shuffle... Lionel Richie... Whitney Houston... The White Animals... Eddie Murphy... California Coolers... The Statue of Liberty... Princess Di in Washington D.C... Organizers (which we bought and didn't use)... Burger King Whoppers and McDonalds McD.L.T.'s... Frogurt... Hands across America... Rock Hudson... the Cola Wars... aerobics... answering machines

Sneaker Sales Soar

Tennis shoes were big this year, especially Reeboks, whose sales soared in excess of 13 million this year. One of the more popular styles were the hightops, which were worn for everything from aerobics to playing basketball.

BORN IN THE U.S.A.

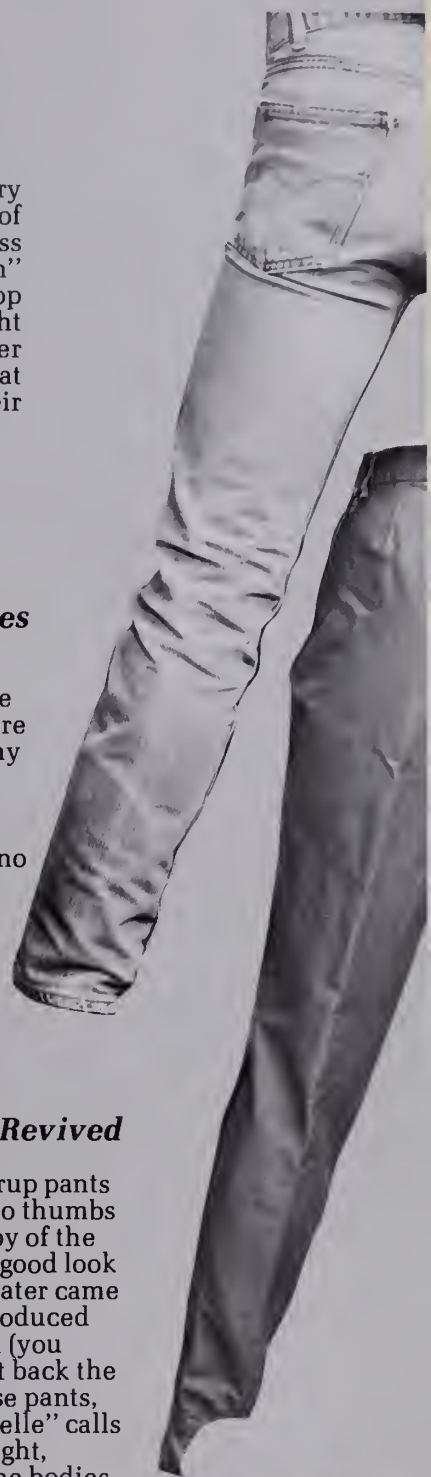

Like a Virgin

Madonna mania swept the country this year, bringing with it a lot of lacey clothing, rosaries, and cross earrings. Madonna's "Like a Virgin" album became one of the year's top sellers and made her an overnight sensation which is why, I guess, her boyfriend-husband Sean Penn beat up everybody that tried to take their picture.

The 501 Blues

Faded 501's, preferably with the knees torn out, were the backbone of any well dressed Ole Miss student. Popularized by Bruce "the Boss," no student would be caught dead in a new pair.

Stirrup Pants Revived

First came the stirrup pants (which anyone who thumbs through a 1964 copy of the Ole Miss can get a good look at). Twenty years later came aerobics, which produced skinny legs, which (you guessed it) brought back the stirrup pants. These pants, which "Mademoiselle" calls a privilege, not a right, could be seen on the bodies of Ole Miss coeds everywhere.

The Recognition She Deserves

Jennifer Gillom is finally getting the recognition she deserves. Selected as the 1985 Athlete of the Year in women's basketball, Gillom was a member of the U.S. women's team that won a silver medal at the World University Games last summer in Japan.

Gillom, a native of Abbeville, was said by the Olympic Committee to "possess all the qualities necessary to be the basketball's Sportswoman of the Year as well as a leading candidate for the 1988 Women's Olympic basketball team.

In the championship game against the Soviet team, Gillom scored a game-high 18 points and pulled down five rebounds. She finished the overall competition with an average of 12.8 points per game.

"To be chosen the best in any field is an impressive accomplishment and we here at Ole Miss take great pride in Jennifer's selection," said athletic director Warner Alford. "She has been such a joy to watch these last four years."

Gillom leads the nationally ranked Lady Rebels in scoring at 23.7 points per game. She was joined on the USA team by Lady Rebel teammate Alisa Scott. "While I'm proud of the honor, I know it could have gone to anyone else on our team," said Gillom.

NCAA probe persists

By WAYNE CLEMENTS

DM Senior Staff Writer

Ole Miss Chancellor Gerald Turner said Thursday that he thinks the NCAA investigation of Rebel football recruiting has taken long enough, and he wants it ended as quickly as possible.

"If they've found any wrongdoing, let's get about correcting it; if they haven't, let us get on about our business," Turner said.

The NCAA has been conducting the investigation since November 1984, and has not made any announcement as to whether Ole Miss is guilty of violating NCAA recruiting procedures.

Turner said he will meet with Raymond Talley and Daniel Beebe, who are conducting the investigation, today to urge them to conclude the investigation.

"They've been hanging around here for a year," Turner said, "and that should be long enough."

In a story published Thursday in The Jackson Clarion-Ledger, Turner said, "I hope we can get some (specifics). That's one of the things I'm going to urge them to do before they leave. I'd like to get this done as quickly as possible and move on to other areas."

Talley and Ron Watson started the investigation last November, but Watson left the NCAA for an administrative position at Tulane. That is when Beebe entered the investigation.

Ole Miss Athletic Director Warner Alford said in The Clarion-Ledger that if Watson had not taken the Tulane job, the investigation might have been finished already.

"That's probably the truth," he said. "When I talked to (the NCAA) this summer, they suggested Ron's taking the job at Tulane did throw it behind. But we have no way of knowing when it might have ended." The NCAA was on campus in June as part of the investigation.

The Strongest Punter in America

Coach Billy Brewer summed it up best by saying "Bill Smith has some great athletic ability to do some things you've never seen before. By far this is his most productive year as a punter because of his pooch punting. He's been the difference in our effectiveness on defense and infield position." This definitely contributed to Smith's success as a Rebel punter as well as his landing on the Football News First Team All American. After finishing second in the nation last year with a 47.7 average, Smith's role with the Rebels changed when Brewer started calling up his punter to keep the position in a hole. Smith knew that his average might fall slightly, but he wanted to prove to Brewer and the team that he could handle the short punts as well as the long. By benching

420 pounds, Smith was expected to hit the long ones, but his goal was to be able to drop the ball just outside the goal line, a goal he achieved. Former Notre Dame coach Gerry Faust had this to say on Smith — "Bill Smith is outstanding. He always put us in bad field position. We might be able to hold them on defense, but he certainly got them out of trouble."

Smith's statistics continue to be impressive in that his game average has not dipped below .2 yards. In 1985, Smith sent the ball flying 75 times for 3398 yards. Smith also iled punts of 59, 53, 52, and yards against Georgia.

Bill Smith has definitely developed into an outstanding pooch punter. Not only that, he has proven to himself, to his coaches, and to his teammates that he is the best.

A TWO TIME CHAMPION

Jackie Ruppert has already been one of the most successful players in Ole Miss Women's Tennis history, and she is only a junior. Jackie has been a two time Southeastern conference champion and has won one number four and five singles titles for the last two seasons. In 1984, she was chosen for the all-SEC team.

Last year Jackie teamed up with Barbara Smith to form the 19th ranked doubles team in the country. She ended the 1985 season with an match winning streak and went on to extend the mark to 15 this fall. Since becoming a Lady Rebel, she has notched a 33-13 overall record and is 23-2 in the SEC. Jackie has also been a finalist in the 32 Gator Bowl tournament. When asked about Ruppert, Head Coach ly Chdwick had nothing but positive things to say about her. She is one of the smartest players on the team who possesses a good all around game, in addition to being a great touch player.

Preserve the Grove

The 1986 senior class will be remembered for a long time. Taking on the largest class project in the history of the school, President Hank Holman, the executive board, and the rest of the senior class set out in October to "Preserve the Grove." The Grove, which has long been a campus landmark, was in danger of losing the many trees so dear to anybody associated with the school. Constant tailgating as well as other activities caused the ground to become so packed that the lives of the many magnolias and oak trees were in danger.

Setting a goal of $100,000, the Senior class sponsored several events for the student body this year. In October, a bar-b-que and fun run were sponsored, which raised approximately $12,000. They also charged five dollars to all alumni that wanted to park in the grove over home football weekends. In addition to all of this, they also sold T-shirts. All of these events were sponsored by Coca-Cola bottlers of Memphis.

BOARD VOTES TO CLOSE TWO SCHOOLS

The following was condensed from AP reports.

Mississippi University for Women and Mississippi Valley State University should be closed after this school year and the state's higher education system should be sharply cut back, the State College Board recommended. Facing dwindling appropriations that will force another round of budget cuts at the state's eight universities, the board in an emotional session recommended the legislature make sweeping cutbacks. In addition to closing the two universities, the board approved a resolution to close the veterinary school at Mississippi State University and the dental school at the Ole Miss medical center.

"We cannot continue to operate as we have," said college board president Denton Rogers. "The legislature can take this resolution and pass it or they can fund us adequately." Rogers also said it was the most significant issue ever addressed by the board. The resolution was offered by board member Thomas Bourdeaux of Meridian. The presidents of MUW and Mississippi Valley pleaded with the board not to recommend the closings. "I beg of you not to take away the opportunity for economic and intellectual development away from the people," said Valley President Joe Boyer. MUW asked the board to consider an alternative to outright closing. He noted his university has the highest requirement of any of the eight. Board member George Watson said the changes will most affect the minority students.

percent enrollment increase is official

Enrollment increase means more $

JANE HILL
Assignment Editor

Ole Miss' enrollment for the 1985-86 semester showed a 3 percent increase over last fall's enrollment at the end of the late registration period Friday, university officials said.

Total enrollment for the University of Mississippi numbered 8,918 students at 5 p.m. Friday compared to a total enrollment last year of 8,615 students. The total for this year may increase even more, according to Tom Meredith, executive assistant to Chancellor Gerald Turner.

University officials had predicted a 3 percent decline in enrollment for the fall or a drop of 500 students. The larger number of students mean an increase in funding for the university immediately in student tuition fees and in future funding from the State College Board, Meredith said.

Money from the state is an after-the-fact situation. State funding is based on the number of student credit hours in relationship to enrollment, and we don't have details on an increase in credit hours taken yet," Meredith said.

The increase in credit hours taken will not immediately raise funding for Ole Miss. The figures will not be taken to the state legislature until 1987 and will affect budgeting for the 1987-88 school year, he said.

Meredith said he is not sure enrollment will continue to increase in the spring semester because the tendency is for enrollment to drop between fall and spring semesters. "Our hope is that we will continue to improve. By having an increase (in enrollment) we have turned around a powerful trend. Improvement may continue," Meredith said.

Mississippi universities were required to turn in their fall enrollment figures to the State College Board Friday afternoon.

"I have heard that Mississippi State was even or up slightly and that Southern was down. Those reports are unofficial though," Meredith said.

Beckett Howorth, coordinator of pre-admissions, said the increase was terrific news. Howorth attributed the higher number of students to Turner's high public profile and a feeling of moving forward for the university.

There has also been a lot of positive news generated by the Campaign for Ole Miss," Howorth said.

Director of student housing, Eldrid Hodge, said that his office was not yet sure what effect the higher number of students would have on the campus housing situation.

Hodge said the housing office began counting the number of cancellations of reserved rooms Friday after the late enrollment period had ended, but had not come up with a total.

Hodge did say that he believed that the number of students living on campus is up.

Chancellor Gerald Turner said a statement released Friday what made the report of increase enrollment so encouraging is fact that the number of students is larger.

"This reflects the greater interest we are seeing in Ole Miss as students in this state throughout the nation. I attribute the increase to the thousands of Miss students, faculty and members and alumni who become actively involved in university's recruitment capital campaign efforts during last two years," Turner said.

Turner also cited the leadership of Gordon Heasley, vice chancellor for student affairs, and regional recruiters stationed throughout the state.

Improvements on campus have been a factor too, Turner said. Student housing has made large improvements recently," he

A Penguin for Colonel Reb?

If the number of votes cast for a candidate were the only prerequisite for winning Colonel Rebel at Ole Miss, then a fictional pudgy penguin would have been eligible for the run-off in November. According to A.S.B. Attorney General Darryl Roberts, Opus received 778 votes that had to be counted as no votes. "Opus does not meet the requirements to run for Col. Rebel because he is not enrolled in school and has no g.p.a." Bob House, one of Opus' campaign managers said he would like to see Opus in the runoff because he is popular, adorable, preppy, and always wears a tie.

Some of the qualifications listed on Opus' ads were that he was a four year letterman (he was the football), best dressed, always making the papers, and has never had a parking ticket. Patrick O'Neil, another one of Opus' managers, said that he had many people coming up to him saying that they thought running Opus was a great idea. "Whoever won the election will always know that he was almost beaten by a stuffed animal that campaigned with no song groups, no flyers, and only one 50 dollar ad."

Our Third Miss America

First there was Mary Anne Mobley, next came Lynda Lee Meade, and this year the coveted Atlantic City crown returned to Ole Miss and wearing it was a blonde haired, blue eyed coed from Meridian. Susan Diane Akin brought honor upon herself, her university, and the entire state of Mississippi when she was crowned Miss America in September. As we sat and anxiously watched on TV, cheers could be heard around the state as tears filled the eyes of that face familiar to us all when her name was called out as the winner. For Susan Akin, the title had only been a far away dream since she was a little girl.

Crowned Miss University, Susan traveled to Vicksburg during the summer and made pageant history when she won both the swimsuit and the talent preliminaries. She then went on to receive the state title. From there it was two months of rigid preparations for the title. About two weeks before she even went to Atlantic City, she was making the headlines when a computer picked her as the next Miss America, a prediction that came true.

Since being crowned in September, she has returned to the Ole Miss campus twice. No definite plans have been made as to when she will return to school, but when she does, we will be waiting.

WHAT WE THOUGHT

1985-86 has been a year marked by despair, joy, controversy, and tragedies. Whether it was on the Ole Miss campus or around the world, there have been definite occurrences that will stand out in our minds as being significant. The 1986 OLE MISS asked ten students that have been highly visible on the Ole Miss campus, whether it was on the pages of THE DAILY MISSISSIPPIAN or on the stage of Fulton chapel, what will stand out in their minds the most when they reflect back on the past year. In 20 years, our children will read about some of these events in their history books, while others will have been long forgotten.

THE CAMPUS CODE

A

ASB — Did you know that we all are a part of the ASB, technically, and it is not just composed of politicos on the 4th floor of the Union?

B

BURSAR — Where you go to pay those parking tickets, pay late fees, telephone fees, and cash a check if you feel like paying an extra 50 cents.

C

COMPUTER CENTER — Does it ever close? Did we ever do our own programs? Did it ever break down on the night when you were about to finish?

D

DEADHEAD — How to identify: goes barefoot to class, hangs out at FORRESTERS, tie-dyed T-shirts, rawhide bracelets, and anyone willing to drive to Michigan for a two day Grateful Dead festival.

E

ELECTIONS — How do we put up with three a year? How can so many elections be run by so few people? How many elections has Nick "the election guru" Bragorgas actually run?

FRESHMAN

F

FRESHMAN — Anyone who: (a) brags about how drunk they got the night before; (b) brings their books to class on the first day; (c) gains 15 pounds in one semester; (d) spends $75 a week on party pictures; (e) asks where the Lyceum is.

G

GRUB (grubbing) — intense public display of affection; massive making out; "They were grubbing on the dance floor."

H

HOMECOMING — stuffed floats in front of houses; alumni; mums; Friday and Saturday night fraternity bands.

I

I.D. — never, we repeat, never go anywhere without it.

J

JOGGING — what everybody claims to do; the only two socially acceptable places are up University avenue before dinner and at the Turner complex.

Homecoming

K

KEYS — as in to Conner Hall; call 234-5081 if ever in need of.

L

LIQUOR — what you acquire a taste for your first semester at Ole Miss, even though 18 and under age.

M

MRS. DEGREE — Requirement for: drive an '83 Cutlass; be from the Delta; maximum ACT score of 13; elementary education major; must be perched at the Gin for 4 of 7 nights.

N

NEW ORLEANS — A trip down Bourbon Street is practically a prerequisite for graduation; Included in the trip is at least one Hotty Toddy and two Hurricanes in souvenir glasses at Pat O'Briens.

O

ORGANIZATIONS — what we become involved in our freshman year; for those ready to start their hike toward the Hall of Fame.

P

PARKING TICKETS — UPD's calling cards; If not careful, these green gems can add up well into the hundreds; can you honestly say that you've never gotten one?

Q

QUOTA — A big deal if you don't make; a sure prevention of this not happening is to have 200 girls attend pref.

R

RUSHEE — One who gets up at 6:00 to begin preparing for a 2:00 party; trying to look pretty while sweating; having to wear a tie in the Mississippi summer humidity; all of this while shaking hundreds of hands and smiling hundreds of fake smiles.

S

SNAG — usually takes place after intoxication has set in; To meet someone in a bar and thirty-five minutes later have them in your dorm room or apartment.

T

TRASHED — a verb used to express a state of intoxication; occurs most frequently at Thursday night swaps, weekend parties, and Happy Hour.

U

UNDERDOG — what Ole Miss athletic teams are constantly referred to as.

V

VUARNETS — expensive, plastic, French sunglasses; used to help achieve "the look"; usually accompanied by a string around the neck.

Trashed

W

WAREHOUSE — "It's not a house, it's a home"; easily recognizable by its large bouncers, Wednesday Amateur night, and freshmen making an attempt at their first snag (see above for definition).

X

XEROX — a type of machine into which we pump dimes and has the magical ability to create copies of old tests; known for being broken down when needed the most.

Y

YUPPIE — Young Urban Professionals; what $\frac{3}{4}$ of all Ole Miss grads are destined to be.

Z

ZOO — better known as Stockard-Martin; became even more so when all windows were bolted shut.

Even though it is a journalistic taboo, I'll start with something trite: "I watch the sun rise from Odom A for the last time." Every editor says it and it's absolutely true. No one ever said it wasn't worth staying up all night for though. If the 1986 Ole Miss can capture the feeling and emotion and events of the school year, then it will have been more than worth it for me.

Yearbooks of the 40's, 50's and early 60's were "look-at-the-pretty-co-eds-and-let's-have-fun-at-college." Books of the late 60's and early 70's were very organic and soulful, filled with "The Essence of Being poetry." Some yearbooks today are very businesslike with an emphasis on reporting. We are in an age of yearbook journalism which strives to accurately recount the year in copy and pictures with magazine like layouts and design. This has been the goal of the 1986 Ole Miss.

There are a lot of people I would like to thank for their hard work and dedication. Without them, this book would not have been possible. Steve Davis, the Business Manager, was really my right arm and kept the contracts straight. David Elmore and Mrs. VanLandingham, Financial Director and Assistant Financial Director, were always supportive as were George Copeland and Nancy Jones of Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas.

We had an excellent staff of photographers. They include: Art Huggins, Head Photographer, David Griffith, Rob Ferguson, The Mann, Jeff, Katie Gilchrist, Lisa Bowers, Cathy Boswell, CeCe Chatfield, Valerie Gordon, Susan Probst and John Gibbs who contributed much to the Sports section.

To Rosanne Turner, Holly Horton, Poppy Pruett, Jennifer Day, Joy Huggins, Kathy Kellerman, Cheryn Netz, William Brown, Carolyn Byars, Patty Carroll, Kevin Allen and Bob Herring a very big THANK YOU! Priscilla, thanks for lending your name in the opening. Also, a big thanks to Jim Duckworth for his excellent sports copy and Hal Cato, assistant editor. He did a wonderful job on the closing and gave great advice.

So here we are at the end. No more losing the ladder diagram, no more losing the clear copy fitter, no more losing the scissors, no more all nighters, no more Cheetos and Cokes. This was a special year and a special book. Hope you like it.
